Neutral Organ Arranges Pro and Con Discussions in Chapel on Subject of War Justification

Discussions On Disarmament To Start Tonight

By Gordon E. Jones

"I will never fight," said an aged and much respected professor of Yale University, before the Supreme Court to be applied for citizenship papers in this country. "You shall not be an American Citizen," was the voice of the Court at this refusal to bear arms. This event aroused a discussion over the entire breadth of this country, and the question as to how many citizens is a native v. make the same declaration. This answer comes from England which over 200 students before the Oxford Union that under no circumstances would they bear arms for king or country. Student opinion is divided without question. Only a gasoline tax from complete collapse says the Department of Education. Already the sectarian school no longer lies with low income. The speaker pointed out that both the naive modern rested. But World War the millennium year will deal with campus problems.

Members to Work for United Appeal on Campus

Students of the Y.W.C.A. council have started a movement in the national organization to urge representatives of the British government to make a peremptory request for "speedy" action by Japan, hints that the sects are not as great in the United States. The antisemitic movement is a revival of one which the naive modern rested. But World War the millennium year will deal with campus problems.

Religious Faith a Combination of Optimism, Pessimism—Dr Niebuhr

A phrase from the famous parable passage in Paul's second letter to the Corinthians has been translated into English. The verse reads: "We prophesy, but we do not know what we prophesy. We know that we prophesy, and this in order that we may be prepared for the worst possible outcome, for the part that has not yet taken place. We prophesy of a future and a present."

The Student

By Thaddeus S. Smith

The Student is the voice of the student body, and as such it has a powerful influence over the students of the school. It is the organ that represents the students, and its policies are guided by the interests and desires of the student body. It is the medium through which the students express their opinions and concerns.

The Student is not only a voice for the students, but it is also a vehicle for education. It provides a platform for the expression of ideas, opinions, and perspectives. It encourages critical thinking and promotes a sense of responsibility and accountability among the students.

Activities for Students

Student government is an important aspect of college life. It provides students with a platform to express their opinions and concerns, and to participate in the governance of the college. It also provides students with an opportunity to develop leadership skills and to contribute to the well-being of the college community.

The President's Proposal for Enlarged Federal Works Program

The President's proposal for an enlarged federal works program has received widespread support from the student body. It is seen as a way to address the needs of the country and to provide employment opportunities for students.

The Role of Student Government in College Life

Student government plays a crucial role in college life. It is responsible for representing the interests of the student body, and for overseeing the implementation of policies and programs. It also provides a platform for students to express their opinions and concerns, and to participate in the decision-making process.

The Future of College Life

As we look to the future of college life, it is clear that the role of student government will continue to be an important aspect of the college experience. The needs and desires of the student body will continue to shape the direction of the college, and student government will play a vital role in ensuring that the needs of the students are met.

Conclusion

The role of student government in college life is crucial. It is

Silent Albert Smith Declares
He Will Write More Deeds
For Students

For the first time in its history, the student newspaper, the Bates Student, will publish an article by a student named Albert Smith. Smith, who is currently serving as the editor of the paper, has declared that he will write more articles for the students in the future. This is a significant move, as the magazine has not published an article by a student for over a year. The article will be released on May 29.

Something toSay not just saying something

A friend of Chesterfield writes us of a salesman who had "something to say":

"I dropped into a little tobacco shop, and when I asked for a pack of Chesterfields the man smiled and told me I was the seventh customer without a break to ask for Chesterfields. "Smoker after smoker," he said, "tells me that Chesterfields click . . . I still five times in many Chesterfields as I did a while back."

Yes, there's something to say about Chesterfields and it takes just six words to say it: They're mild and yet they satisfy.

The undercard Cambridge track meet, held at Harvard University, April 19, will be the first of the many track meets to be held during the season. It will be a test of the speed and endurance of the students at Harvard and it will also be a good opportunity for the athletes to improve their time and set new records.

In the 100 yd. dash, Coach Thompson's men will have a good chance to win. Bertleson of New Hampshire will be the man to watch in this race, and he will be opposed by several other good runners. Although the Bates relay four has not been paying affairs, we are looking forward to a good showing from this team.

The 220 yd. dash will be a close race, and it will be interesting to see which of the runners will come out on top. The majority of the runners will be from New Hampshire, and it will be difficult to predict the winner.

The 440 yd. dash will be another close race, and it will be interesting to see which of the runners will come out on top. The majority of the runners will be from New Hampshire, and it will be difficult to predict the winner.

The 880 yd. run will be a test of endurance, and it will be interesting to see which of the runners will come out on top. The majority of the runners will be from New Hampshire, and it will be difficult to predict the winner.
