FROM THE NEWS

New York's Invisible Gov's

Yesterday the New York Governor, former Governor Alfred E. Smith, spoke at the Colgate University valedictory exercises. The speech was well received by the students, and was considered to be a fine illustration of the type of leadership that is needed in a modern democracy.

Colored Lights To Adorn Tree On Old Campus

Appearing upon a suggestion of the student body, the Student Council has decided to purchase colored lights for the Christmas tree on Old Campus. The lights will be a welcome addition to the tree, and will make it even more beautiful.

The lights will be purchased with funds raised by the Student Council. We would like to express our support of the student body's efforts to raise money for the tree.

Sincerely yours,

Students' Reactions
To New Garnet Issue
Continued from Page 1

Emerging from the doors of the Hall, a number of students
were heard to exclaim,
"What a wonderful
issue!"

This reaction was shared by many students who were blown away by the beauty
and quality of the new Garnet issue.

Some of the most appreciated features
of the issue included
the remarkable poetry sections and the elaborate layout.

The issue also received high praise
for its variety of content, with students
enjoying both the serious articles and the lighter essays.

Overall, the new Garnet issue was welcomed with open arms, and it is expected to continue to receive positive rec-
tests from its readers.

WHAT LUCKIES ARE SO MILD, SO SMOOTH

Open a pack of Luckies and lay the 20 cigarettes side by side. You can't tell one from another. Every Lucky is round, firm and fully packed—with choice Turkish and domestic tobacco.

And every Lucky is free from annoying loose ends. The tips are clean-cut —the tobacco doesn't spill out. That's why Luckies draw easily, burn evenly —and are always mild and smooth.
