O, little college down in Maine,
In fancy I return again.
To stroll again your shaded walks,
And listen to the babbling brook.
To 'lectures in your classroom halls,
And 'lectures where the light is best.
To hear you, O Lord, on this day.
To hear you, O Lord, on this way.
To breathe the air that is most sweet.
To breathe the air that is most sweet.
To feel the sun on my back.
To feel the sun on my back.
