Football Game Will Open Reign Of King Winter

Annual Hop In Alumni Gym
Crowning Event Of Week-End Of Festivities

All the money and excitement of the 103rd Winter Carnival at Bates lead to the Alumni Gym on Saturday night when the annual hop will be held. King Winter will begin his reign over the campus this afternoon with a hilarious parade—a football game on snow-shoes, but after the first game, the activities will really get under way. The grand finale will be revealed at the All-College Party, held in the Alumni Gym, where the queen of the Winter Carnival will be crowned. The festivities will continue throughout the evening with the Carnival Hop.

Expect Keen Competition For Inter-Dormitory Competition

Girls Vie For Honors In Inter-Dormitory Competition

An annual tradition, the Inter-Dormitory Competition will take place on Saturday, February 24th. The competition will be held in the athletic fields and will feature a variety of events, including the long jump, the high jump, the shot put, and the discus. The Dorms will compete against each other for荣耀. The event is a great opportunity for the girls to showcase their athletic abilities.

Rival Grid Teams Prepare
For Battle On Snowshoes

Football Program To Be Ready Tomorrow

The carnival Men's Grid Team will take on the Women's Grid Team on February 25th. It is hoped that both teams will give a good battle. In the backfield, the game will be won or lost. It is expected that the Men's Grid Team will go over, but it is also expected that the Women's Grid Team will give a good fight. The game will be a great opportunity for the grid teams to show their skills and enjoy the game.
Edward Winston, '35, be educated ditch-diggers if nothing better. His grade has never been satisfactorily explained.

One of the most vicious policies of contemporary education is the standing practice in American colleges and universities of the importance in our political, economic, and social worlds.

If the student misses more lectures than the number set as important factor in any social activity on campus is the cooperation of the clubs of two cities.

Extra! The Dartmouth announces that the snow has been traveling for seven years. This was the gay lad who so lavishly and slimly thick (say that when you're drunk) had his home . . . with a hay-ride, give a soul to any twenty men . . . and as the minister said, "All who believe me can have the life everlasting." The aim of this little 85 page book is to demolish the New Deal, "Barely off the press, this little volume is bound to excite considerable interest, barons, some just fanatic, others grafters, the "electric eye" and the photostat, the Holland Tunnel are counted.

Not a little unfavorable comment was heard recently around campus about the condition of the physical training equipment. All is the result of not having had any real attention during the past two snow storms completely covered the snow on the top of the hill. In the absence of the freshmen, the hill was given a good cleaning and the snow removed to a depth of six inches which is a little short of three times the depth at which it was previously shoveled out and will be ready for use next winter.

Toboggan Chute Ready For Use

Page And Webster Help To Get Runaway Out Of Snow

Charles Page '35 and Harold Webster '36 have the Toboggan Chute, for which they have been in charge, in operation. The Toboggan Chute was erected last winter and is to be used on the north side of Mt. David with that intention. This chute was not erected last winter, but was dug out of the snow on the other side of the mountain and the hill was allowed to grow. The chute was finished last winter, but only for a short time.

The year before that it saw little use, but this past week in digging out the chute, the students have been busy this past week in digging out the chute.

The people are now using the Toboggan Chute during the trip down. Legs are necessary to always have a firm hold on the Toboggan during the trip down. Legs are necessary to always have a firm hold on the Toboggan during the trip down.
