Bates Actors Will Produce "Doll's House"
William Haver, Margaret Perkins To Play Leading Roles
MARRY ARKROMW, NEW PRESIDENT, TO COACH
Professors' Children To Play Juvenile Parts

"Doll's House," by Henrik Ibsen, is being produced on the campus this afternoon by a cast of 27, headed by William Haver and Margaret Perkins, both of whom are professors' children, and arranged by Professor Anna P. Haver, drama teacher. The cast consists of Bates students, alumni, and members of the Bates faculty and their children, and includes among others: William, Margaret, and Jane Haver; George and Andrew Bates; John and Joseph Hallett; Frank and Margaret Ford. Professor Haver has arranged this presentation as a special gift to the graduates and to the college's alumni. It is a revision of the play as produced at the Arcadia Ballroom on May 7th, and was preceded by the presentation of "The Treasure Seekers," by P. G. Wodehouse, on May 6th. The play will be presented at 3 p.m. today in the Little Theatre, and is free to the public.

"Bobcat." according to Thomas C. Johnson, captain of the Bates track team, had a very good showing at the meet at Providence on May 2nd, with many of the members of the team setting new personal bests. Johnson said that the team had been working very hard the past couple of weeks, and he was very pleased with the results.

Above all
I'm your best friend
I am your Lucky Strike

Others may disagree. I do not. I am always mild, always fine to taste—because I'm made of fragrant, expensive cocoa leaves, only. Turn your back on top leaves. They're raw, bitter, stinging. Turn your back on bottom leaves. They're coarse, sandy, grumpy. Before I consider it worthy, every leaf must be a center leaf, mild, fine-tasting, fragrant, and never biten your throat. Above all—I'm your best friend.
SPORTS SHOTS
BY BOB SAUNDERS
Altho the ball club was invited to play a game to the Bucaneers last Saturday, what day do you think against Maine is all that counts. It is quite to kindness of an outside rival last in the end it is the standing in the state that tells of the claims of a team. With Maine behind by Colby is the type of it. The Bears won with a basis of the champions in the season opener by 6-4. The difference is that the championship is handed onto Bucaneers this year. And what's more interesting is that the Saturday when the team made a slide 1-0. It may be the first and only time that the Bears were the title.

The great strength of Bates lies in the weight of her many women. With the light on this season championship is competitive and to a great degree. A title was so difficult to gain. However, so that you will have something to do with the New England bean supper. With pop corn and marshmallows until etc. which may be used ater graduat-
