Welcome, 1940!

Perhaps it sounds absurd to you to be welcomed again, after all the fine work the Christian Association, the professors, the administration, the Y.W.C.A., the Club women, the A.A., the proctors and others have made to bring Bates to the state of efficiency we now see it. But do not make a mistake in thinking that we really mean a welcome, so, with your forgiveness, it is with a sincere welcome that we say:

Your years at Bates lie ahead of you. They will be only what you make them by a series of choices.

All of you have made one big choice—to come to Bates. Many of you have made a second choice—your course of studies. In this selection, you do not mate college with other colleges; you do not make a choice, and, possibly, include even as early as this what you want your four years to be. Possibly those who see your ambition and realize that you are already putting in the work, and your desire to have your aims fulfilled in the college years, are already putting in the work, and your desire to have your aims fulfilled in the college years, are already putting in the work, and your desire to have your aims fulfilled in the college years, are already putting in the work, and your desire to have your aims fulfilled in the college years, are already putting in the work, and your desire to have your aims fulfilled in the college years, are already putting in the work, and your desire to have your aims fulfilled in the college years, are already putting in the work, and your desire to have your aims fulfilled in the college years, are already putting in the work, and your desire to have your aims fulfilled in the college years, are already putting in the work, and your desire to have your aims fulfilled in the college years, are already putting in the work.

So, if you choose to be a freshman—for sports drink (thank goodness total abstinence from sports is impossible at Bates) there will be four years at Harvard Yard and Tabor's. If you choose to do nothing but athletics, there may be none of four years for you.

But all freshmen going to all colleges have those specific choices of a college and courses. At Bates, as explained in your Freshman Guide, there are two honorary organizations—the College Club, to which outstanding men are voted membership in their senior year, and, since last fall, the Bates Key, a service organization, devoted to the benefit of the students, Membership to the Key is based on scholarship, character, campus service, leadership, and future promise. Membership in either of these organizations is a goal well worth at-}

W. E. Manning, recent assistant to the coaching staff, was graduated last June from Drake University.

With the first football game of Holy Cross this end of the week, this week's game was given in English.

The 1936 Board of Strategy has been meeting with the members of the football squad, and has elected Mr. Bernard Marcus and Mr. Ed Eckstein to coach for the new football season. Both men are seniors, and have been members of the football team for several years. Mr. Marcus is a three year letter-winner, and has been on the varsity team for two years. Mr. Eckstein has been a member of the varsity team for three years, and has served as captain of the team last year.

The Varsity Club held a party in honor of the football team, and presented each member with a silver cup. The cups were presented to the players by Mr. A. H. Belknap, the late President of the club.

Mr. E. R. M. Smith, the new athletic director, addressed the players, and emphasized the importance of the season. He stated that the team had a good chance to win the conference, and that the members of the team should work hard to achieve this goal.

The Secret of Fine Flavor

Like the Persian melon, the Turkish tobaccos used in Chesterfield are watched day and night. There is just one right time to take off the leaves—that’s when they have ripened to their fullest flavor.

Often the tender ripe leaves are gathered just before the dawn to preserve the full “spice” and aroma for Chesterfield.

Chesterfields are made by Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co. and you can depend on a Liggett & Myers product.
