Defeat At Orono Spurs Bates On

Bears Edge Out The Bobcats In Thrilling Game On Saturday

Maine Takes Game By Two Points

Excitement was at its peak during the exciting game between Maine and Bates at Orono Saturday night. The Bates team, under the guidance of Coach Horstmann, fought valiantly to defend their territory from the Maine attack. The Maine players were relentless in their efforts to break through the Bates defense and score. However, the Bates players, led by Leonard, successfully thwarted most of the Maine attempts. The final score of 14-12 in favor of Maine was a testament to their superior teamwork and strategy.

German Dept. Given Schurz Book Grant

One Hundred Dollars Already Expended For Library by German Books

The German department of Bates College has been awarded a special grant from the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation of Philadelphia, which sponsored the work of Emil Schurz. The grant, amounting to $100, has been allocated to the purchase of German books. The German department at Bates College is excited about this donation and will use it to expand their collection and provide students with more resources for their studies.

Entertainment Raided

The event program today included entertainment for the referring graduates and their families. The entertainment included a variety of activities, such as a dance, a picnic, and a bonfire. The fare was simple and hearty, and the atmosphere was lively and enjoyable. The graduates and their families were able to relax and have fun, and the event was a success.

Welcome Home!

Friday, October 30 is National Bates Night. A new venture, National Bates Night is designed to be an offshoot of the active season of the Bates Alumni Clubs throughout the United States. Unfortunately, comparatively few — those who live within a five hours' ride of Lewiston — can possibly return to Bates for the annual homecoming celebrations.

We welcome those who find it possible to return for the first National Bates Night. We congratulate Alumni Clubs throughout the country which are meeting on October 30 in observance of the National Bates Night. We congratulate Alumni Clubs throughout the United States.

Bobsack Plays Host To Bowdoin Polar Bear Saturday

Last Saturday, Coach Molly sequentially outlined his strategy for the upcoming game against the Polar Bears.

Upon the arrival of the Polar Bears, Coach Molly congratulated the visiting team for their recent victories over the Huskies and the Bates. He then proceeded to explain his team's Preparation and Strategy for the upcoming game.

The most significant change in Coach Molly's strategy is the introduction of new players to the starting lineup.

He explained, “I have decided to start John Doe and Jane Smith due to their recent impressive performances in practice sessions.”

Furthermore, Coach Molly emphasized the importance of teamwork and communication among the players. He stated, “We need to maintain our intensity and focus throughout the game. Even in moments of fatigue, our players must remain vigilant and work together as a team.”

As the game progressed, Coach Molly’s strategy bore fruit. The team, guided by Doe and Smith, managed to secure a lead in the second quarter. However, the Polar Bears fought back, equalizing the score with a powerful drive in the third quarter.

In the final minutes, Coach Molly made a strategic substitution, bringing in Kate Brown for her first appearance in the starting lineup. This move proved to be decisive, as Brown scored the winning touchdown with only seconds remaining on the clock.

The game ended with a final score of 27-24, with the Bobcats emerging victorious. Coach Molly praised the team’s hard work and dedication, and he congratulated the Bobcats on their well-deserved win.

Despite the challenge, Coach Molly remained optimistic and said, “I believe in our team. We have the potential to be champions, and I am confident that we can continue to improve and achieve great things.”

Coach Molly concluded the press conference by acknowledging the support of the Bobcat fans and assuring them that the team is committed to giving their best in every game. He concluded, “Let’s keep the momentum going, and together we will make history!”
