Bates Meets Colby Here Today

Eight Bates Seniors Will Play Their Last Game For Coach Morey

Team From Waterville Has Many Good Reserves As Shown by Scores Of Their State Series Games

Bates Eleven Prepared To Play Their Best Game, Since Team Has No Injuries

By Sam Loos '38

Now that the State Series has been decided in favor of Bowdoin, the fighting Bates eleven will battle with the Colby Mules here on Garcelon Field at 2:30 this afternoon.

Co-Guptile Marie McFarland had her Greater From mobel position and will lead her team. Bates hold the lead of the tuna team. Colby has shown power in both State Series by holding with colleges to two touchdowns.

Have Five Good Ends

On the Colby team there are five good ends at one end. Steve Young and John Wright are the probable ends. Ken Heald is at the other end. Long Rosen and Dick Fox will get Coach Henry's call when the game opens. Jim Rice will be the tackle on the bench. The only end on the bench for Bates will be Tommy Stetson.

Junior Cabinet To Have Smart Dance Orders

Aye To Be Black-Sueed With College Seal And Gamet Tassel

The extremely smart dance orders are an item that has been introduced in the past for the coming Dudley Gymnasium Christmas Ball Saturday. These dance orders are marked as to the dance and they provide a check-off which the dancers may cross off at will.

Few things that grow require all the care and cultivation it takes to raise the field, raise tomatoes in Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Proper curing by the farmer gives flavor to Chesterfield tobacco just as it does to fine hams and hooch.
