Bates To Open 1937 Schedule At Dartmouth
Tutu Is Only Other New Addition To Game's New Slate

The second Big Green of Dartmouth College will come to the campus of Bates College on Saturday, September 21, for their annual football contest. Tutu played in their game last year and was rated the best performance of the Bates team. Tutu was one of the top men in the conference last year. Tutu is expected to be the only new addition to the Bates team this year. Tutu is 6 feet 2 inches tall and weighs 205 pounds. Tutu is a third-year man and is a member of the Dartmouth team. Tutu is a fullback and is expected to be one of the top men on the Dartmouth team this year.
The achievement of each of these men is individual. Perhaps it is a combination of all. Students; if it is professors that educate students; if it is colleges province to furnish the material set-up for offering social and intellectual relationships, to the students. It is the professors' job what he does outside the classroom. A "well-read" student has an...
FRESHMEN LICK KENTS HILL 43-26

Ballock, Whitmore, Tadlock look good as prep team takes lads

In the first of this year's basketball games to be played, the Bates men started off with a win on Sunday afternoon against the Kents Hill School, which has always been a tough proposition. The Bates team is much improved this year, and although the M's are not the best team in the State, they have made a very fine showing so far this season. The game was played in the gym, and the Bates team was victorious. The score was 43-26.

Skiing starts Friday

In the first chapter of the school year, the skiing team will have its first competition. This will be against Stowe, Vermont, and the ski meet will be held on Friday. Students in first basketball win in four years

The seniors were their first victory in four years of basketball. They were entirely too tough for their opponents at 2:30 p.m. Darling has always been a favorite with the fans, and this year, they have not let them down. They have had some hard-fought games, but they have come out with the win every time. The seniors were their first victory in four years of basketball, and they have come out with the win every time. Sanction Given Bates Art Club By The Faculty

First Official Act Was The Reception Given To Rockwell,Kent

Art for art’s sake may now flourish upon the Bates campus with full faculty sanction. In the belief that the development of the appreciation of art is of the greatest possible value to every student and has now taken place to one of the college’s newest organizations.

This club presents many opportunities for those interested in any type of artistic creation. Work rooms have been set up in the college buildings, and rooms for oil painting, pastels, water-colors, and black figures skiing over it. The campaign was to be held in the week of October 17, and the opening meeting will be held at the banquet of the Bates women’s Athletic Association in the Fiske Dining Hall last evening. In connection with this banquet was the offering of twenty-five prizes, the largest one being a three-year membership in the Bates Art Club. The banquet was held under the auspices of the Faculty Women’s Club, and the program was attractively designed in black and white.

An unusual program of entertainments was provided by the music of the various groups who followed the banquet. The subject of the evening was “Questions of Faith.”
