4-21-1937

The Bates Student - volume 65 number 02 - April 21, 1937

Bates College

Follow this and additional works at: http://scarab.bates.edu/bates_student

Recommended Citation
http://scarab.bates.edu/bates_student/664

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at SCARAB. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Bates Student by an authorized administrator of SCARAB. For more information, please contact batesscarab@bates.edu.
Stewart Wins First Place in Junior Prize Speaking Contest Held Last Night

Dorothy Kennedy Wins Second Award

Stewart ushered in the Junior Prize Speaking Contest held last night in the Student Center. Dorothy Kennedy, a sophomore in the College of Education and Humanities, was presented her views on the ideals of education, the role of education, and the impact of education on society. The judges were impressed with her delivery and content, awarding her the first place prize.

Sills Adressed P.B.K. Banquet Last Monday

Stills Need For More Scholars in Positions Of Advice And Administration

Prof. Angelo Berge, a professor of English, spoke at the P.B.K. Banquet last Monday. He emphasized the need for more scholars in positions of advice and administration. He underscored the importance of scholars in guiding the direction of the institution, fostering intellectual growth, and ensuring the quality of education. His remarks were met with considerable interest and appreciation.

Bates Substitutes Peace Education For Agitation

Progress Starts With Student Chapel Talks By Jaffarian, Chase

The substitution of peace education for agitation in the college began with student chapel talks. Prof. George Chase discussed the importance of understanding global issues and promoting peace. He encouraged students to engage in discussions and activities that foster a greater sense of community and understanding.

Campus Leaders Express Opinions on Peace, War

In connection with the current war activities in which various clubs, colleges, and peace organizations throughout the nation are participating, this evening the campus leaders expressed their views on peace and war. Their opinions have been expressed in terms of calls and as an echo of their famous quotation, "I now know that wars do not end wars."—Henry Ford

Sixty Voices To Vocalize Many Foreign Songs

Program To Conclude Last Of Lecture and Concert Series This School Year

The chorus of the Harvard Glee Club will conclude with sixty voices to vocalize many foreign songs. This event will be marked by the participation of various groups from the university, including the Bates College Glee Club.

Barclay Dorman '38

The Bates Boys and Girls Club, with its sixty male voices, will be featured in the concert. The program will include Russian songs as part of the concert, and the group will be directed by Mr. Barclay Dorman '38.

Arise Late Early

When the motley array had passed the Saturday evening showers, adorned their original headdress to Mary Vernon. Rodger, Win...
THE BATES STUDENT
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 1937

Page 2

THE BATES STUDENT

Editor
(Col. 4-123) John L. Reed
Managing Editor
(Robert A. Wilson)

Assistant Editors
(Senior 4, 1938)

Robert Kinney '88

Business Manager
(Vol. 1938-89) Robert Clifford 39

Carroll Harper '39

Feldie Davis '38

Walter L. Looby '38

News Editor (Vol. 1938-89)

(Ed.)

Women's Editor (Vol. 1938-89)

Walter L. Looby '38

Sports Editor (Vol. 1938-89)

Mark L. Buffum '39

Cub Editor (To be added)

Subscriptions (50¢ per year, 25¢ for students) may be had by mailing notices of change of address to the Manager, The Bates Student, 3708 Bates St., Lewiston, Maine.

Articles and advertisements must reach the office by the 15th of each month.

Editor's Notes

Any letter to the editor is a matter of great importance to the editor, and is read in the light of the many other letters and notes to the editor. The editor of a college newspaper is held to a high standard of fairness and impartiality in the publication of letters and comments from students and faculty. The editor is responsible for maintaining the integrity and dignity of the newspaper, and for ensuring that all opinions and statements are presented in a respectful and constructive manner.

The editor's notes are designed to help readers understand the context and background of the articles and features published in the newspaper. These notes may include additional information about the author or the topic, as well as insights into the newspaper's editorial policies and practices.

The editor's notes are intended to be informative and transparent, and to promote a healthy and engaging dialogue among readers and contributors. By providing context and background, the editor's notes aim to enhance the reader's understanding and appreciation of the articles and features they are reading.
Baseball Trip Includes Tufts, B. C. And U. of N. H.

Boston Jumbo, Wildcat Pitchers Weak; B. C. Strongest

Johnson, Marcus, Deaney, Bergon And Gilles

By Leonard Jakovics

The 10-man squad of each team will play a 10-game schedule over a week end and to cover the three powerful opponents,...

SPORT SHORTS

By Sam Leakey '38

Three Relay Teams, Two Mile Stars To Compete At Cambridge Saturday

Fresnanesh Squad Starts Practice For Franklin Track Meets

Baseball and Infirmary Deplor

Student Lost

When The FORDS Roll By Bates Campus

Think Of WADE & DUNTON MOTORS

And Tell Your Folks Of Our Excellent Trade In Value

TAKE A LOOK

These adventurous have survived the last 10 years. They have gone out of their way to meet your needs.

TAKE A LOOK - AND WHERE THEY ARE, Then - Go out of your way to meet your needs.

“YOU'LL GET THE GOODS”

Steve's Chosen As “Betty Bates” Friday Evening

Whittier House Wins Banner at Coast Health Week

Miss Elizabeth Bovitt '37

New Harvard Baseball

George Buisel, freshman shortstop, was hitting above .300 when his recent operation for appendicitis. He will be missed this week. Morey here. The effectiveness of the pitching staff, which includes Ralph Hayes, Tominey and Captain Bergeron And Ullis

Bates, who is also a candidate for the varsity catcher's equipment, which is fur-...
"Icebound" To Be Staged Soon By 4-A Players

Judge Wilson '92 Hits Social-Security Act

Judge Scott Wilson '02, a member of the Fifty-Fifth Congress, is attempting to have a social-security bill introduced in both House and Senate.

Rehearsals for the 4-A spring play, "Icebound," now will under way. This Palladium Play winners by Owen Davis will be presented in the Little Theatre on Thursday and Friday, April 28 and 29.

The scene of the play is laid in northern Maine and the action begins around the Jordan family. The play follows through the day, April 29 and 30.

Judge Wilson will be a fellow of Bates College.

"Peace propaganda itself is insufficient, unless it is to be followed on an arid and exhaustive program throughout the educational system of the world. Every individual of every nation should be taught that international living and cooperation - the products of peace, for committees, for territorial advantages of war" - Mr. Wilson.

"It seems that, with the world being more closely tied together, every problem which leads to war could and should be worked out on an individual way." - Mr. Wilson.

"The armistice means no war as far as the Allied powers are concerned, but, having finished the job, the Allies cannot and will not let the war end. The peace we are about to enter into may disintegrate at any time because it is not well established." - Mr. Wilson.

"We Americans ought to have to meet the responsibility of the supreme congress, said: ""The world has reached a juncture where every individual must come to the conclusion that peace is essential. Peace is insured only when everyone is willing to sacrifice his or her individual interests and point of view for the sake of the whole." - Mr. Wilson.