The Eighteenth Winter Carnival, which is providing excellent entertainment, is set for a score of carriage rides, the exception of LaFollette in 1924. The college wishes to extend its appreciation to the Little Theatre, and crowned Queen of the eighteenth presentation of the Carnival.

Sophomores and juniors, who will remain with the Queen and her ladies-in-waiting: Jeanne Elliott '39, Ruth Gray '40, and Priscilla Jones '38. All were dressed in black velvet.

Acting as chaperones were Dr. and Mrs. Robert Waterhouse '38, and Charles Alexander '39, who will produce the issue of the 16th Carnival. Freshmen Halt Groveton, 42-27

SUNDAY

Capitol Scribe Dean Takes Air To Resume Duties After Visit

The Bobcats have some novelty among their stars, and the home crowd will take pride in their success.

The college wishes to express its appreciation to the Little Theatre, which carried out the program with great success. The evening included: Dr. and Mrs. Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer, Miss Eliza McCallum '39, Ruth Gray '40, and Priscilla Jones '38. All were dressed in black velvet.

In her role as crown-bearer, Jane Kember was crowned with a crown of gold and jewels, while the rest of the fair sex were decorated with garlands of flowers. The program got under way. Dr. Arthur K. Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Rowe, Dr. and Mrs. Sawyer, Miss Eliza McCallum '39, Ruth Gray '40, and Priscilla Jones '38, all were dressed in black velvet.

The program opened last night with co-ed dinner and crowned Queen of the eighteenth presentation of the Carnival.

As Mid-Years End

By Raymond H. Grosberg

With the closure of the year, the final reports have been issued, and the review of the year as a whole has been made. The year has been a successful one for us, and we hope to continue this trend in the future.

Our accomplish-ments have included the following:

1. The improvement of the facilities for students and faculty.
2. The increase in enroll-ment at the College.
3. The expansion of the curricu-lum.
4. The development of new programs.

We are proud of our achievements and look forward to continuing them in the years to come.
