Athletic Committee Announces Winners Of Award Sports

Three varsity letter awards and twenty-five commendations were presented in recognition of four years' service, it was announced by the Athletic Association.

The awards will not be made until the week after the final exams of the season. The names of the recipients in each sport will be announced when the season is over, and the letter awards will be presented at the meeting of the Athletic Association at a General Assembly in the New Chapel Gymnasium.

These receiving the award for the first time are: Frederick Raftery, Donald Purcell, and Kenneth Root.

Varsity team awards were also given to the members of the Varsity Track and Field, baseball, basketball, tennis, and football teams.

Many Grads Honored By American “Who’s Who”

More than fifty-five graduates of Bates College were featured in the latest edition of “American Who’s Who,” the annual volume of biographies of distinguished men and women in the world of achievement and influence. The list includes former Bates presidents, Robert T. Bragg, 1885, and Sir William Pierson, 1886, as well as former students, including notable educators, scientists, and athletes.

Ernest Moore Succeeds Professor Cutts As Director Of Athletic Association

Ill Health Calls ‘Ollie’ to Bench

New Head Experiencd By Years Of Service At Various Schools

The resignation in June, because of health problems, of Professor Cutts as the athletic director at Bates is expected to continue the athletic department’s tradition of excellence.

Professor Cutts announced Friday afternoon by President Clifton D. Gray, D.D., that he would be succeeded by Professor Ernest Moore, an English professor at Bates for the past ten years.

Moore has served as the athletic director at several other institutions, including Harvard University, where he was responsible for the creation of the first college football team in 1869, and he has been associated with Bates for the past ten years, serving as the athletic director at Bates.

He is known for his dedication to the sport of football and his commitment to developing young athletes.

Ernest Moore was appointed as the new athletic director on Monday morning, and he will begin his duties immediately.

Many basketball games and track and field events have been scheduled for the upcoming season, and Moore is looking forward to leading the team to success in the upcoming season.

Many Grads Honored By American “Who’s Who”

The annual edition of “American Who’s Who” features biographies of notable alumni from Bates College, including prominent academics, scientists, and athletes.

Many of these alumni have made significant contributions to their fields and have been recognized for their achievements.

The list includes former presidents of Bates College, Robert T. Bragg, 1885, and Sir William Pierson, 1886, as well as former students, including notable educators, scientists, and athletes.

Many Grads Honored By American “Who’s Who”

The annual edition of “American Who’s Who” features biographies of notable alumni from Bates College, including prominent academics, scientists, and athletes.

Many of these alumni have made significant contributions to their fields and have been recognized for their achievements.

The list includes former presidents of Bates College, Robert T. Bragg, 1885, and Sir William Pierson, 1886, as well as former students, including notable educators, scientists, and athletes.

Many Grads Honored By American “Who’s Who”

The annual edition of “American Who’s Who” features biographies of notable alumni from Bates College, including prominent academics, scientists, and athletes.

Many of these alumni have made significant contributions to their fields and have been recognized for their achievements.

The list includes former presidents of Bates College, Robert T. Bragg, 1885, and Sir William Pierson, 1886, as well as former students, including notable educators, scientists, and athletes.
The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-tor of an impressive number of educational institutions and as assistant headmaster or faculty member of an equally impressive number.

The past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New

The Bates Student, Wednesday, April 22, 1930

The Old Order Changeth

"A new broom sweeps clean," the old adage goes, and last week the Administration furnished us with a brand new broom, in the person of "Ohie." The construction of (iarcelon Field and the building of the entire athletic tor Cutts during the most trying years of his career in the Athletic Office. It was "Ohie's" task to be as economical as possible. Yet, consider—if the echo exists so strongly, how strong must have been the original sound when he was not at his prime. Our appreciation for his past career of Director Moore reveals a most capable charac-
tor and a philosophy of the Philo-

The New
Ifigsebal
4
Bolxat pastiraers look ahead
[ of Northeastern  to six hits, but hie

^ter"fielder,  got 4 out   of   5.

However,

more  than  six  hits      They

* eem to show a weak hitting team for the first time.

th

Al

ey

m

M

ey

for the first time.

th

I

We Solicit the Buttnet*

Bate* Student.

Bennett

Banking Service"
IN THE THEATRES

E U R P I E
Thu., Sat., Sun., Apr. 28, 29, 30
Dorothy Lamour in "Big Jungle Love"

MON.
Sun. Tues., Wed., May 2, 3, 4
Jennifer, Malcolm and Nabiel Godby in "Girl of the Golden West"

AU R U N
Thu., Sat., Sun., Apr. 28, 29, 30
"Battle of Broadway" with Vic and Betty MacLure

Agatha Christie's "Sleeping Murder"

The College Store

FOR BATES STUDENTS

Norris-Hayden
LAUNDRY

Auburn, Me.
Tel. 107

AGENT

GORDON WILLIAMS

We can show you a varied

PRIZE CMTS.

FOUNTAIN PENS.

LAZY LADS UMBRELLAS & LEATHER GOODS

LEATHER BILL FOLDS

BOOK BINDING

Barnstone-Osgood

JUNIORS - LEWISTON

The Auburn News

FRIDAY NIGHT

CHESTERFIELD and PAUL WHITMAN are asking you to try out this year's world-famous New York World's Fair: "Rhapsody in Blue"...a thousand happy dancers read the news. A blaze of color...flags and costumes of every nation....

Light up your Chesterfield and join us in the preview of the New York 1939 World's Fair.

When it's Swing time at this great opening barstool be Chesterfield Time all over the country.

CHESTERFIELD and PAUL WHITMAN

Al車he ■■■ tmt, in your neighborhood drug store.

 billiggs

for more smoking pleasure everywhere

Chesterfield is the right cigarette....They Satisfy!