Mrs. Folsom Discusses Task
Of Feeding Eds and Coeds

By Iris Oatman '40

If you think it is an easy task to feed 1,000 people, you have never done it before. From the early hours of the morning until the midnight hour, Mrs. Folsom, college dietitian, has been at work preparing meals to be served at Comstock Hall. At dawn, she and her staff, numbering 30, are busy in the kitchen, where they are cooking breakfast, lunch, and dinner for the students. Mrs. Folsom has been dietitian for the past seven years, and she knows the art of feeding large groups of people.

Sports Editor Is Called Home

George Lythcott '40, STUDENT sports editor, has been called home. While speaking with his father, Dr. George Lythcott, he broke down and had a heart attack. He was rushed to the hospital, where he died. His death was unexpected, and his sudden departure is a great loss to the Bates Student. He was a popular member of the Student Body and will be greatly missed.

Lecture Series

This week the lecture series will feature three talks. The first is on "The American Revolution," by Mr. Charles F. H. Smith, who will speak on the history of the Revolution and its impact on American society. The second lecture is on "The Evolution of the Economy," by Dr. John D. Smith, who will discuss the economic changes that have occurred over the past century. The third lecture is on "The Art of Photography," by Mr. John V. Smith, who will demonstrate the techniques and history of photography.

One of the finest customs in the human race is that of observing holidays for those things in life which must be kept alive. Decoration and present-day Americans have made a holiday of Mother's Day. A holiday is a time of special joy and happiness, of taking a break from the ordinary. When we observe holidays, we are setting aside a special time to reflect on the things that are important to us.

Boston "Pops" Offers "Bates Night" May 18

Wednesday, May 18, has been designated as Bates night at the Boston "Pops" Orchestra hall. A number of students will be present and in the audience. The "Pops" are scheduled to perform two programs, one at 8:00 PM and the other at 1:30 PM. The orchestra will feature Bartok's "Out of Doors," a work that is considered a masterpiece of 20th-century music. The program will also include a selection from the opera "Rusalka," with soprano Mary Garden as the soloist. The orchestra will be conducted by the well-known American conductor, George Szell. The "Bates Night" event is a wonderful opportunity for students to experience the thrill of live symphony music and to share this experience with their peers and faculty.
