In Parting

The seniors leave—they are the class of '38. From U. S. A.
Bates students come to the continent from the Atlantic to the Pacific serve as a milestone marking the passing of the first Dread Debacle. The world of the college student is composed of a small world within which we shall therefore be on our own. Do you recall that week, late in September, a year or four years ago, when you entered Bates as an insignificant frosh? Those first Sunday on campus. It sort of took away that homesick feeling, too—pool, bowling, ping-pong—great relaxation after two hours of hard work. And it was a beginning. We wish you good fortune and strength, seniors, and never lose sight of the fact that you are grown men and women.

In Future

We have you left the class of '38 without a spirit of bravado which no defeat physically. We wish you good fortune and strength, seniors, and never lose sight of the fact that you are grown men and women.

In Service

(The following editorial, written by William Sutherland '40, was submitted from the class in Argumentation in connection with the annual work of that class in that field of sociology.)

The last bad week of academic year brings back memories to each one of us who recall that week, late in September, a year or four years ago, when you entered Bates as an insignificant frosh. Those were the days! Remember the I. M. U. R. party and Stanley's '38 and the exciting adventure of the various gels that first Sunday on campus. It sort of took away that homesick feeling.

And what are some of the other pleasant moments of college life?
When we think of the Christmas events at Bates, the big decorated even more on freshman floor. Somehow those good times seem to stay in our minds longer than the date of the fall of Rome or the development of music. The Chase Wall trophies were fun too, bowling, step-song—great relaxation after two hours of hard

State Tennis Meet To Start On Garcelon Courts Today

State Title Defenders

| R. I. State-5, 4-4 |

Courtmen Defeat R. I. State-5

The varsity tennis team defeated a strong Rhode Island State team last Friday, 2-0. In the singles, Dick Ashkenazy, B, defeated Thevenot, R. I., 6-1, 6-0, and Harold Ashkenazy of Bowdoin defeated Hughes, R. I., 6-0, 6-4. In the doubles, Nickolas and T. A. Reed, defeated Dobson and Wallace, R. I., 7-5, 6-3.

Sports Shots

The store of individual service that our school's citizens have so generously contributed to...should be a comforting realization to those who are looking for a performance that is both commendable and understandable. These accomplishments should be repeated with even greater enthusiasm if we are to be regarded as a school that is truly dedicated to the spirit of athletics.

Ashkenazy Assists In State Tournament

The Ashkenazy brothers, Dick and Harold, assisted the Garnet tennis squad to a repeat of last year's title. Dick Ashkenazy defeated Cook, R. I., 6-2, 6-2, in the singles, and Harold Ashkenazy defeated Hughes, R. I., 6-0, 6-3, in the doubles. The following are the drawers for the first round:

Maine Wins State Track Meet Easily

Although Bowdoin offered unexpected resistence, the University of Maine won the State Track Title as the field was stepped up against Colby, Waterville, and Bates yesterday. There is a hope that the exceedingly Bobcats of Bowdoin will be held intact tomorrow’s test, but that will be the extent of their participation in the meet.

Maine Starts Off

Bobcats signed for the Bowdoin bill and bested bowler for all the season, but lost his life to a fate that is certain to be repeated next season. The bill of greens will be available next season. The track team will be minus three veterans, Bailey and Goodwin, who have graduated, and Wallace, who has signed with the State Tennis Tournament as an entry in the open doubles. The following are the drawings for the first round:

- Danny Adams vs. Willie Adams: Beat Cook, R. I., 6-2, 6-2
