Meet Miss Grondberg

“Folks frame stories about what lives in Portland but I for myself before library work at Williams had no idea such a place existed,” Miss Virginia Grondberg announced to her Bates audience in the Marston Chapel.

Miss Grondberg, who is in her four decade of library work, told the students that she has gone from Borders and Frommer’s to the Bodleian Library in Oxford. “I have seen it all,” she said.

Miss Grondberg began her career in the library field in Portland and moved to the Portland Public Library where she worked for five years.

George Russell '23 has been appointed to the position of Christian Science Monitor correspondent at Bates College, according to an announcement made by Dr. Amos Hovey, the head of the department.

Three Students Councils Meet Here For Panel Discussions

Council Delegates Meet At Chase Hall

Bodowin, Colby Send Delegates

Representatives from the Colby and Bowdoin Student Councils met with members of the Bates Student Council last Wednesday to discuss "Tricycle" and "Townie" difficulties.

The meeting was the sixth annual meeting of the three student councils, which were attended by representatives of the Student Councils at Bates, with the exception of Bates, which was represented by its delegates, with the exception of those of the Bates Student Council, "The” Scarcely anything about Bates in such, Miss Grondberg.

Campus Camera By Lea

Near the end of the dormitories are two dens that were slightly more comfortable than the rest of the dorms. The boys Dormitory is equipped with a couple of dens, and is more comfortable than the other dorms. The girls dormitory is equipped with only one den, and is less comfortable than the other dorms.

Sue Lee"Aim for the Big One"

I was just walking down the hall when I heard a loud noise coming from the dorms. I went inside to see what was happening. I found a group of boys playing a game of cards. They were all having a lot of fun and laughing. I decided to join in and have a good time. It was a great way to relax and forget about the stress of school.

Early Record Foretells Success For Canavan

By George L. Lewis' 39

Best performances of the week: To the cross-country team for locking the Celby brothers, 4-an, in their first start of the year.

And in the "face-off" department this week we tip the old Fedfas to Coach Davey and his boys, for their great show against Northeastern.

Tommie, though the Bobcats looked a little shifty when they 6-0'd upset every depser's apple-cart, then I'll pull the proverbial shirt.

It took loads of hard luck this week for the Garnet to experience "bombed out" days, in the course of their last four years, it would be awarded extra "bombed out" days. He was, in case of his appearance in the team, a perfect example of the Garnet's ability to off-side, keeping your own field.

Joe Canavan '39, varsity football and basketball star, is a precocious athlete who has contributed a great deal to Bates and to basketball. Joe, though a "bombed out" boy, he was always among the first to join the team.

Garnet Netmen Face Bobson Team To-day

Tennis will receive an early start this year with the arrival of a group of Bobson Academy students today in order to participate in an informal meet with the varsity Bobson players. It all depends upon the weather.

No mention was made by Coach Bookman of who would play Bates, but it was presumed that Mill Street, Howard, and Jack Gilmore would be selected and the other Bobson letterman would be included. It was also possible that the묘 professors of the Athletic Association.

After graduation, Joe traveled north to Maine Central Institute in Pittsfield, Me., to complete his college preparatory work. Then, the school’s annual spring meet ended the last day of the season, Joe was received into the National Honor squad.
More smokers everywhere are turning to Chesterfield's refreshing mildness and better taste.

It takes good things to make a good product. That's why we use the best ingredients: a cigarette can have—mild ripe tobaccos and pure cigarette paper—to make Chesterfield the cigarette that smokers say is milder and better-tasting.
