Seger To Lecture Tonight In Chapel
Nazi Victim Will Speak on "Hitler On World"

Gert H. Sieg, war-time artist, who paints the German Reich and cities of Nazi Germany, will come to Bates College for a series of talks in the College Chapel.

He is a veteran of the war and has just returned from the front. He will talk about his experiences as a war artist in Germany, including the massive destruction of the German capital during World War II.

Seger will speak at 8 p.m. tonight in the College Chapel. The talks will be open to the public.

New Stu-Prexy Presents "Policy"

The policy of the new Student Council was informedly "on policy" at the beginning of the year. The current Student Council, the last year's executive board, is the nucleus of the new council.

Dr. HaKord Luccock, the director of the series, predicts a colorful and informative program for the new council.

"It is always difficult to cultivate new members and maintain the old ones. However, the new council is ready to take on the challenge.

"It is important to have a clear understanding of the council's goals and objectives.

"It is essential to have a strong leadership and a motivated team."

"It is vital to have a supportive and encouraging environment."

"It is necessary to have a clear and comprehensive plan for the future."

"It is crucial to have a strong and cohesive team."
Adding Another Ring

It would seem natural and in ordinary fashion, I imagine, to speak—and here—our last—column in sober and sagacious comments dedicated to "Only God can make a tree" we repeat reverently. Our state capitols carved on a tree have become the American substitute for a feminine retain their past histories, their past experiences.

The snake is in direct contrast to the tree in more ways than one. The official new each year.

HITLER CONTINUES MASTERY OF EUROPE

When Hitler marched in the prelude to unconditional surrender, the situation was still part of the Constitution, one often hears the comment, "My grandfather fought in the World War."

However those problems still exist and the latest moves from the World. The attitude of the United

Girls Stage Annual Gym Demonstration

The annual Gym Demonstration program of the Bates Women's Athletic Association was presented by Miss Fullerton, President of the Women's Athletic Association, and Miss Folsom, Secretary of the Women's Athletic Association. The program was arranged by the Seniors, with the cooperation of the Junior and Sophomore classes. The program was designed to present a cross-section of the women's athletics and to demonstrate the spirit and skill of the Bates women. It was a two-hour program, with a total of 100 student-athletes participating. The program included swimming, tennis, and basketball, with the Senior class performing the most elaborate routines. The program ended with a final dance by the Senior class, with music provided by the Bates College Glee Club.

Holbrook, Mass. — In "Collegian" Interview

Gus Clough '39 in "Collegian" Interview

Gus Clough '39, correspondent for the annual "Collegian" interview, was recently interviewed by the editor of the college newspaper, the "Collegian," regarding his thoughts on the current state of affairs on campus. Clough shared insights on various topics, including student life, academic pursuits, and extracurricular activities.

The interview covered a range of subjects, from the latest developments in the arts and humanities to the ongoing debates in science and technology. Clough expressed his views on the importance of interdisciplinary collaboration and the role of education in fostering innovation.

In conclusion, Clough emphasized the need for students to engage actively with their communities and to pursue their passions with dedication. The interview concluded with a call to action for students to contribute their unique perspectives and talents to make a positive impact on campus and beyond.
