Vivid Memories Stir Home Coming Zerbys

By Ralph Taller '42

Dr. Hamilton Zerby, after years of travel and study, last fall reached his home in Lewiston, residence of Lewiston, Maine—newly acquired instructor in sociology and government at Bates College. Dr. Zerby, a native of Waterford, Vermont, left for Europe at the age of 22, and has traveled extensively throughout Britain, France, Belgium, and the Benelux countries. Upon his return, he commenced working on his doctorate at Cambridge University, where he completed his studies in 1937.

Dr. Zerby's work on Doctor's College is under way, and he plans to remain at Bates for several years. The College has expressed a strong interest in his work, and he is expected to make an important contribution to the field of sociology.

Battle With Illness Keeps Boulcough Out

Although suffering from a serious illness, Mr. Edward Powell, head of the Department of Economics, has been able to continue his work. Mr. Powell, who was recently diagnosed with diabetes, has been told that his condition is under control with proper treatment.

Mr. Powell's illness has caused some concern among his colleagues, who are aware of the importance of his work. However, his determination to continue his work has been admired by many.

The Department of Economics has organized a fund-raising campaign to help support Mr. Powell during his recovery. The campaign has been well received, and donations are continuing to come in.

Ralph Childs '40 Witnesses

Ralph Childs '40, a resident of Oxford, Maine, recently witnessed a dramatic event while traveling in Europe. While on a trip to England, Childs encountered a group of men who had been involved in a serious accident on a sinking ship.

Childs, who is a member of the Bates College sailing team, was able to use his knowledge of the sea to assist in the rescue efforts. His quick thinking and decisive action saved the lives of several people, and he was commended for his bravery by the authorities.

The incident has been widely reported in the press, and Childs has been hailed as a hero.

Traditional Date Set

The traditional date for the Bates College Homecoming weekend was set for October 6, 1939. The weekend will feature a variety of events, including a football game, a dance, and a series of lectures.

The football game will be against Bowdoin College, and is expected to be a close contest. The dance will feature music provided by the Bates Orchestra, and will be held in the campus gymnasium.

The lectures will cover a wide range of topics, including history, literature, and the arts. The event is open to the public, and tickets are available for purchase at the college ticket office.

Meet Dr. John A. Rodemaker—Long-time Resident of Lewiston, Maine

Dr. John A. Rodemaker, a long-time resident of Lewiston, Maine, has been appointed to the faculty of Bates College. Dr. Rodemaker, a specialist in sociology and government, will be responsible for teaching courses in these fields.

Dr. Rodemaker has a long history of involvement in educational and community affairs in Lewiston. He has served as a member of the school board, and has been active in the local chamber of commerce.

Dr. Rodemaker's appointment is expected to be a significant boost to the college, and will help to strengthen its position in the community.

Many '39 Grad Find Employment

Many students graduate every year with high hopes and ideas of what they wish to do, only to find themselves working in entirely different fields than they had intended. A recent survey of the class of '39 showed that only a small percentage of them had found employment in their chosen fields.

As usual with Bates graduates a large number have taken positions in their own states. Some have positions in Law and others in Medicine. There are also a few who have positions in Education and the Arts.

Among the graduates who have positions in Law are:
- Edward Smith in New York City
- John Robinson in Boston
- Carl Thompson in Washington
- Edward Sodium in Philadelphia

The arts have been especially successful. Among the graduates who have positions in the arts are:
- Robert Jones in Chicago
- George Chen in New York City
- John Donovan in Boston
- Robert Sodium in Washington

Kay Gould '40 Tells Duties Of A Social Worker

Kay Gould '40, a social worker in the Family Welfare Society in Boston, gave a talk on the duties of a social worker. She spoke of the importance of understanding the needs of the people she works with and the challenges she faces in her work.

Kay Gould said, "As a social worker, I have to understand the needs of the people I work with. This means understanding their problems, their background, and their goals. It also means understanding the society they live in."

She continued, "The duties of a social worker are many and varied. They include helping people find housing, employment, and medical care. They also include providing emotional support and assistance in times of crisis."

Kay Gould emphasized the importance of empathy and compassion in her work. She said, "Social workers must be able to listen and understand the needs of the people they work with. They must be able to provide support and guidance in times of need."

She concluded, "As a social worker, I feel a sense of responsibility to help people in need. It is a challenging but rewarding job."
SPORTS

By Bill Howland ’41

The theme for this year's athletic department has been brought to life both for the present and the future. A year ago this same issue brought forth the theme of T.C. Harriers Meet N. H.

open their season Friday by racing the New Hampshire team at Durham. Dave Nickerson, Charlie Warren Drury, Irv Mabee, Joe Houseman, and Hasty were hurt in the same baseball game. Since then the team has been plagued with injuries and Hasty broke his leg in practice two weeks ago. The team will be up to a disadvantage in these trials—

BARBARA ROWELL HEADS 'GARNET' STAFF

The Publishing Association in 7-9 room of the Cannon Building, has announced that Barbara Rowell will be one of the four publications heads of the 1939-40 staff of the Garnet. The other three are Dorothy Knowlton, Helen Donahue, and Louis Hargreaves. Miss Rowell, a junior, is a member of the Sigma Xi, Phi Delta Kappa, Gray Friars, and the Student $200 Club. She has been an editor of the Garnet since her freshman year, and has been appointed at a later meeting of the association.

Mrs. Edward R. Boston, in a letter to Miss Rowell, expressed the gladness of the Boston family that Miss Rowell had accepted the position. His letter is reproduced below:

Mrs. Edward R. Boston

To the Editor of the Garnet:

Dear Miss Rowell:

I am not sure that you know that your position as a member of the Garnet staff is one of the most important at Bates. Your name will be one that will be watched very closely and your presence in the Garnet will be felt greatly by all the students. Your name will be one that will be known to all the students and your presence in the Garnet will be felt greatly by all the students. Your name will be one that will be known to all the students.

Sincerely yours,

Edward R. Boston

P.S. Please let me know when you expect to return from your vacation.
