Mass. Wins Trip Opener

The Bobcats started their season off on the right foot by winning their second straight game, thanks to a gripping 75-66 victory over Assumption College in Worcester.

In the game, the Bobcats managed to win two points in the first quarter, thanks to a layup by Raftery. In the second half, the Bobcats started slowly and were down by 15 points. However, with 30 seconds left on the clock, Senior Raftery, who had been on a roll all season, took charge and scored the Bobcats' final points of the game.

Portland Mayor Speaks At Xmas Vesper Service

Rev. Ernest W. Richards of Portland, a Democrat, was the great municipal speaker at the Christmas Vesper service held in the Colonial Sunday. The affair is sponsored annually by the Maine Christian Association and the National Council of Churches.

The progress was as follows: "Our problem," said Mr. Richards, "is to get up from our knee, soft chair, leave our static fire and take up our post of midnight and ride steady those narrow rails we call the steps of life." With the development of speed, there is always the pleasant sound of humming trains, but the train concomitant and поезий диктофонов.

New England Offers Many An Advantage To Skiers

In response to the growing demands for winter sports, New England has put in a great deal of effort creating new facilities and improving those already existing. The region’s ski resorts offer skiing conditions for all tastes—novice, intermediate, and expert skiers.

In Frenchwoman, the Commonwealth Mt. resort is known for its challenging slopes and top-notch facilities. In Maine, the Sugarloaf Mountain ski area is famous for its Catskill Mountains, offering a variety of trails and slopes.

The ski slopes in New England are equipped with modern facilities, including lifts, chairlifts, and modern snowmaking systems. The region offers a wide range of accommodations, from ski resorts to bed-and-breakfasts.

The ski season in New England typically runs from late December to early April. Visitors can enjoy the best of the season by booking at least a few weeks in advance. The region is known for its clear blue skies, moderate temperatures, and perfect snow conditions.

Alumni Association of Bates College

The Alumni Association of Bates College is proud to announce its annual holiday gathering. This year’s event will be held on December 12th at the Alumni Center in Lewiston. Members are encouraged to attend and bring their friends.

The event will feature a delicious dinner, live music, and opportunities to reconnect with old friends. Space is limited, so be sure to reserve your spot today.

Alumni who cannot attend in person are invited to participate via Zoom. The Zoom link will be sent out to all members in advance. Join us as we celebrate the holiday season with our beloved Bates family.
