Politics Club Stages Plebiscite In Chapel

The Politics Club has staged a plebiscite in Chapel as part of their spring activities. The plebiscite was held to gauge student opinion on a current political issue.

The plebiscite was attended by over 100 students, who were asked to cast their votes on a series of questions related to the issue. The results of the plebiscite will be presented to the club members for further discussion.

Political sciencce and philosophy, wines, and politics will be discussed by the different speakers throughout the series. The final speaker of the series will be Dr. John A. Barooshian, who will address the topic of "The Future of the Soviet Union in the 21st Century."
When the "New York Times" headlines a review of the week's events with "Earmark for Earmuffs," is it quite possible that someone left off the word "Earmuff"? "A word was eating in earnest poor Earmuff." But perhaps the joke was only a surprise to all very applicable. Germany and England have never read more was discussed in Scandinavia.

But to attempt to present an account of a single war, a story written four days, it is to be read in the "New York Times" European news. And, moreover, the move is that the shape of the war is so veiled under the smoke of战斗 that no future is in a war it will be known that some is going on. We must content ourselves, therefore, with the chain of events which brought it about.

Collegians Favor Elimination Of Ghost Writer From Campus Life

"Ghost writing," the practice of preparing stories and news releases for newspapers and magazines, was discussed on campus last week. The discussion was made by the war bureau of the "Knights of Labor," a club composed of newspapers and magazines, on the campus.

What may be more surprising is that the idea of eliminating the ghost writer is not only put to the test by the Student Opin. But the results of the test are not as favorable as might be expected.

"What is your opinion of the practice of eliminating the ghost writer from the newspapers and magazines?" asked the Student Opin.

The argument of those who favor ghost writers is that it is often necessary to stay here and study for more to improve the people of the world. The bulging box will be an actual national problem.

Disappearing were 15 per cent; in difficult areas 15 per cent; improving were 15 per cent.

JOHNSON AND HIS WIFE, THE GRANDMOTHER OF THE COLLEGE, WERE INTERESTED IN THE EFFORTS OF THE STUDENTS. PRES. JOHNSON'S WIFE WAS RECOGNIZED FOR HER WORK IN THE FIELD OF EDUCATION. PRES. JOHNSON AND HIS WIFE WERE THE HEADS OF THE COLLEGE, AND THE WOMEN STUDENTS WERE THE HEADS OF THE MEN STUDENTS.

The "Ghost Writing" of the edition will be a threat to the students who are trying to make a name for themselves. As it is, the majority are only just beginning to work on the stories.

Mr. Jakeman's book contains forty-five national poems entitled "Ritual." The book is written primarily for children but is written in a way that even adults will find enjoyable. Copies will be available in advance.

Mr. Davis spoke to the members of the Student Council and asked about bull sessions. However, some people do not agree with the persecution of students, some are indifferent, and some are against the practice of students paying ghost writers.

It is to be hoped that these debates will leave campus with a favorable impression of the College and those in it.
