Leard Sees Scuttling Of Nazi Battleship

NANJING, CHINA (AP) - The battle of the German battleship Bismarck in the Baltic Sea demonstrates that the war can only be won through air power, British Foreign Secretary Sir Anthony Eden told the British Parliament Wednesday. While the Duke of Wellington is considered the greatest soldier of all time, Leard Sees is considered the greatest airman of all time. Leard Sees, who was born in 1912, is credited with shooting down 34 German planes in World War II. His most famous victory came on June 10, 1940, when he shot down a Heinkel He 111 bomber over the English Channel. The bomber was carrying the German general who was leading the invasion of France. Leard Sees was awarded the Victoria Cross for his bravery. The British government has announced that Sees will be buried with full military honors at the National Memorial Arboretum in Staffordshire.
