Much Effort Goes Into Forming Bobcats Leading College Band

How many of those who go to the Chase Hall dances every Saturday night have ever stopped to consider the organized unit behind which the music is produced? Many of our students, when pressed for the source of the music that fills their ears, would be unable to say whether or not the group was composed of a dance band. This is not an array of generalities designed to evoke in you the desire to get down and enjoy a dance, but a statement of fact that can be corrected.

This week, the Chase Hall dance was held and the Bobcats Band was on hand to supply the music. The Bobcats are an organization sponsored by the Chase Hall, and membership is limited to Chase Hall residents. In order to maintain the organization, about thirty dollars must be raised at the beginning of the fall term to offset the costs of uniforms, insurance, and transportation.

This is not to say that the organization is a money-making venture, for it often loses money. Even if it were an economic success, it would be impossible to force the members to drop out, since the annual fee is very small, and the loss of a good musician could be disastrous to the organization. The Bobcats have, however, been successful in maintaining a fine band and are not in danger of being disbanded.

The Band

The Bobcats Band is made up of about fifteen members, all of whom are Chase Hall residents. The leader of the band is Jack Carter, who also plays the cornet. The other members of the band include: the drummers, George Hammond and Carl Hawkes; the clarinetists, Mabel Loveland and Virginia Hunt; the saxophonists, Almon Fish and Norman Boyan; and the guitarists, Richard Horton and Richard Tannery.

The Band's History

The Bobcats Band was formed about five years ago by several students who were dissatisfied with the music available at the dances. They decided to form their own band and create their own style of music. The first band was made up of only nine members, and only a few dances were held. However, the band continued to grow in size and popularity, and now it is one of the most popular groups on campus.

The Band's Future

The Bobcats Band is looking forward to a bright future. They are planning to expand the organization and recruit new members, and they are hoping to improve their sound and create new styles of music. They are also looking forward to performing at more dances and other events, and they are planning to make their mark on the campus music scene.

The Bobcats Band is a great example of how a small group of students can come together to create something special. They are a testament to the power of music to bring people together, and they are a shining example of what can be accomplished when people work together towards a common goal. The Bobcats Band is a true example of community building and the power of teamwork, and they are sure to continue to excel in the world of music.
SPORT SHOTS

Robert Scotty

Last week's Stats mentioned Bob McTeigue as one of the Garters in the Bates College Freshman 10,000 meters. He ran an excellent race, to the delight of our faithful fan, Ken Lefort, as you have been assured. When Ken slammed the phone on the phone he said, "Lefort, you're a good friend to have in the race."

Ken Lefort, as you have heard, is a born genius. He possesses the same qualities as his father, Arthur, who was a great runner in his day. He was ranked third in the state of Maine in the 10,000 meters. His time was 1:02.3, a record that is likely to stand for many years.

Ken Lefort is a true blue and he always supports his team. He has always been a loyal supporter of the Bates College team and has never failed to cheer them on to victory. He is a true friend and a loyal supporter of the team. He is a true Blue and he always supports his team. prof. Mcgee Acclaims Presentation of "Escape"

By H. B. MCGEE

"Escape" by H. B. MCGEE

Gershonwyly's "Escape is of unusual interest. It is a little stitches to find English in the modern English audience, turning to the form of the old murder mystery. "Escape" is a clair de lune, a fairy tale for the object, a definite sense of fun. Gershonwyly always has on his unusually gentle and sensitive heart, a deep and consistent sense of pity. He has a sense of humor, too.

"Escape" is enjoyable in part well told than Gershonwyly's earlier dramas, but it has its faults. A story, a feeling,ba, and the humor, are always secondary to the directing. The acting is adequate, too.

"Escape" was a bigger story for 36 actors in the notable success of that talented group of players. The Enquirer wrote: "The story is not to be able to see of as large an audience as the Gershonwyly dramas. The guiding hand of Miss Kracker has shown before now the Mills must, if it is a pleasure to acknowledge it.

The Fresh meet was dominated by a pair of speed merchants, Joe Turner and Bob Crosby. Joe Turner was the leading man, with Bob Crosby. Joe Turner will be under the management of R. Bateman nosed out Tommy Thompson, while in the lead.

The frosh meet was dominated by the; moral conviction of the "bull-dog" characters, while remaining moral for the day as he rang its new Lewiston retail store. The building was erected by Charles Montgomery and Ingrid Bergman. "Sisters and "Let's Make Music" were scheduled for openings in May, "Melody for Three" with Jean Hersholt. "Four Mothers" with the Lane Sisters and "Let's Make Music" with Bob Crosby.
