Student Interest Helps Gorcein Field Expand

The students of Bates College have come together to support the expansion of Gorcein Field, and their efforts have resulted in a larger and more modern facility for the athletic teams.

The students have donated time, labor, and money to the project, and their contributions have been vital in making the expansion possible. The field is now able to accommodate more spectators, and the playing surface is improved. The students have demonstrated their commitment to the college and its athletic programs through their support.
