Mysterious Burning Of Old Gym New Physical Plant

By William Crane '46

New Year's Day, 1941, just sixty years after the building of the original gym, the seniors laid the foundation stone of the present Alumni Gym. They did so with Pepe, Hope, Fred, and Weegee in the audience, the following list in the audience:

"Pepe"—water the Wheatell Bible, old-time fire alarm system. The gym was dedicated to the memory of the late Mr. William J. Wheatell, the founder of Wheatell College, who died on November 11, 1930. The building, completed in 1931, was named in his honor. It is located on the present Wheatell campus, and is open to the public on Saturdays and Sundays.

The new gym was an impressive structure. It included an excellent basketball court, an indoor track, and a swimming pool. It was equipped with the latest in athletic facilities, and was a symbol of the college's commitment to provide its students with the best possible facilities.

The dedication ceremony included a parade, a speech by Mr. Wheatell's son, and a dedication plaque. The plaque read: "In memory of Mr. William J. Wheatell, founder of Wheatell College, who died on November 11, 1930. This building is dedicated to his memory as a symbol of his vision and dedication to education."
Individuals May Be Remembered That This Will Be the Last Season. Almost the Whole of Last Year's Runners Have Appeared to Transmit a More Even Contest Will Be uttered.
