Joyce Again Leads Frosh To Two Wins

In Row As South Portland and Rumford Bomb

Continuing with its winning ways, Antioch's undefeated Frosh basketball team captured victories on two occasions last week to stretch its streak to five straight games. The Frosh squad reached arc inegrating South Portland High School on Thursday and Rumford High School on Friday night.

Once again, it was Joyce Jones, high scoring Gartow forward, who led the attack to both games, scoring 15 points against the South Portland High School and 15 against Rumford. Tony Drago accounted for a combined total of 16 total minutes and Jack Whiting recorded 14.

Neither game was close at any time with the Frosh club winning 34-16 over the Bobcats and a solid 48-20 over the Portland squad. Antioch's forwards have now pulled 45 3-pointers as opposed to 12 for the restricted opposition, which if you bother to figure it up, amounts to about one per game.

Joyce has stretched his scoring record to 31 and leads the season in points. Whiting and Drago, for a good margin.

The play of Vivian Mitchell, second scoring forward, has been a consistent element in the team's success thus far. Mitchell has recorded 14 points and added a second in the restricted opposition, which if you bother to figure it up, amounts to about one per game.

In an address before the Bates House Club, on the evening of January 21st, 1942, Mr. Charles M. Biddle of the Christian Science Monitor reviewed many of the current events of 1942. With remarkable el-cision, he made his points.

Mr. Biddle revealed the fact that America must play a crucial role in the war. He pointed out that we have had no experience in modern warfare, and that we must learn from the mistakes of others. He also emphasized the importance of cooperation and unity among the nations of the world.

Mr. Biddle spoke about the current economic situation, and the need for a strong and stable economy in order to support the war effort. He emphasized the importance of savings and thrift, and the need for everyone to contribute to the war effort.

Mr. Biddle concluded his address by urging everyone to do their part in supporting the war effort. He emphasized the importance of sacrifice and dedication, and the need for everyone to work together to achieve victory.

McKinishe Debates Twin Three More Plays

Reporting on the Biddles Debates Tour of the United States, Mr. McKinski said that the debates were attended by a considerable audience, and that the discussions were lively and intense.

Mr. McKinski also spoke about the upcoming Three More Plays theme, which he said would be a "spectacular" event. He emphasized the importance of supporting the arts, and the need for everyone to contribute to the cultural life of the community.

CAMPUS REACTS TO WAR MORE QUICKLY THAN IN 1918

According to Mr. Billard, the campus was in a state of shock when news of the war broke. However, he said that the students were more prepared than they were in 1918, and that the war was met with a more immediate and determined response.

Mr. Billard noted that the students were more willing to join the war effort, and that they were more ready to sacrifice for their cause. He emphasized the importance of unity and cooperation, and the need for everyone to work together to achieve victory.
