Student Council Reviews Activities of the Past Year

John Donovan '43, president of the Student Council, this week reviewed the past year's activities of the group. The Student Council, he said, was going to continue its efforts to improve the activities of the Frosted Field.

The first activity featured on the Student Council's review was the annual Spring Frosted Field. Donovan explained that the Frosted Field, which is sponsored by the Student Council, is an important part of the College's spring activities. The Frosted Field features a variety of activities, including music, dancing, and other entertainment. Donovan said that the Student Council is looking forward to planning future Frosted Fields.

The second activity featured on the Student Council's review was the Spring Break. Donovan explained that the Student Council has been working hard to improve the Spring Break activities. The Spring Break is a week-long break from classes, during which students can travel and enjoy themselves. Donovan said that the Student Council is planning to offer a variety of activities during the Spring Break, including trips to different cities and countries.

The third activity featured on the Student Council's review was the annual Homecoming Carnival. Donovan explained that the Student Council has been working hard to improve the Homecoming Carnival activities. The Homecoming Carnival is a popular event, featuring a variety of activities, including games, food, and music. Donovan said that the Student Council is planning to offer a variety of activities during the Homecoming Carnival, including a parade and a fireworks display.

Donovan concluded his review by expressing gratitude to the Student Council members for their hard work and dedication. He said that the Student Council is looking forward to planning future activities and improving the College's campus life.
