Unbeaten East Takes Intramural Pantagraph

The highest-scoring East Parker squad in several years put on an all-around performance to win the Pantagraph's intramural basketball championship during the last week of competition. The winning team, which included the best pick-up players from the mentor, the fraternities, and the off-campus teams, defeated the New Dorm West in the final game, 84-67. The team, which was led by Frank Dietz, scored 65 points in the game and 100 points in the season, outscoring their opponents by a total of 342-180.

The scoring record (ten highest):

Al Geller and John Thomas were key players for the team, with Geller leading the way with 28 points and Thomas scoring 20 points. The New Dorm East Parker team was the only team to win a game against East Parker, and they did so with a score of 80-76.

- Off-Campus: Mike Matragrano, West Parker
- New Dorm East: Mike Myles, Cresswell
- New Dorm West: Phil Blanchard, Cresswell
- Cresswell: John Bertram, Off-Campus

The New Dorm West Parker team, despite their second place finish, have shown great promise and will be tough to beat in future seasons. The Cresswell team has shown potential, while the Off-Campus team has yet to find their rhythm. The season has been a testament to hard work and dedication, and all teams should be proud of their accomplishments.
