End of April 11 brought to the campus the sad news that Dr. Walter Maxwell Hasenfus, 87, the first president of Bates College, and the first to die in office, passed away. He died peacefully in his sleep early in the morning of April 11. Dr. Hasenfus was an active leader in the American educational community, and his contributions to Bates College were immeasurable. He leaves behind a legacy of leadership and service that will continue to inspire future generations of Bates students.

44 Cidermen Rate As Favorites in Class Meet

The current track season will open in February, the 400-yard run, with the weather probably being the chief factor. If the weather is fair, the meet will probably be in good condition, along with the track itself, but weather conditions in the past have been anything but fair.

- The varsity and freshmen teams have had a few days in the gym and are ready to go. The weather has not been the greatest, but they are anxious to get a few more days of practice in before the meet.
