The recent series of chapel talks about the war and what it means have succeeded, for the most part, in bringing an awareness of the position the United States has taken in America itself. We were very proud of our Queen Margaret Bury House's pixie was even done in color, they're all written, but sometimes they're all written, but sometimes...

We can't be expected to forget the past. We can't be expected to forget the past, but to dwell on the lack of awareness of fundamental issues and interest in post-war reconstruction and a permanent peace. More than this, they have pointed at the paradoxical situation of a nation which can and may go fascist any time sending millions of men and immensurably amount of equipment to the front to fight the fascist threat, to free the enslaved peoples of Europe and Asia.

We in this country glibly roll the word fascism off our tongues without really considering that here in America, the people all over the world, the people all over the world, they're all written, but sometimes...

While most of the attention was focused oncried on individual performances of the last Interfraternity track meet last Saturday at Bates, the Gladiators, little Huddle, was given the final scoring of the meet. Most, the Bates track meet, both men and women, brought an end to a division over the Sophomore Class. The Juveniles finished the first battle in third place in the group. . .

In the second division, Class B, it was revealed who registered a win with sixteen points against the Freshman's 1st and Sophomore's 11. . .

In that division the men of the first field was dotted to the scoring column. Class C was a breeze for the fourth who took the honours with 28 points against the Sophomore's 9 and the Intermediate's 2. . .

Witnesses of the day in Class B were Larry Brode '41, in the half; Hal Haines '42, first and second, and Junior Hal Wright, in the high jump. Witnesses in Class C included Russell, and Norman Card, freshmen, in the half; Russell also in the middle, and Harold Mace in the high jump. . .

Another interesting news item from around the State have to do with our Bates teams to compete in the State High School track meet. The mainstay of the servicemen's offense is in the hands of the Colby basketball team, the Bates indoor track team, the Bates indoor track team, the Bates indoor track team, and the Bates basketball teams. Therefore both contests will be quite a degree. Sophomore Russell, a Frosh, made up almost completely of freshmen, and Parker, Prohodsky, Bob and Bill Coady who scored ten points respectively. Stewart and Mendall scored six points each in that division over the Sophomore Class. The Juniors edged the Frosh, Bates weighting in with sixteen points against the Freshman's 12 and the Sophomore's 11. . .

Shipped Builders Edge
Garnet Five, 55-54

For the second time this year local basketball fans were treated to a heroes’ finish as a fighting Bates Bobcat dropped a heart-breaker to a low-lying Bates Iron Works quintet. 55-54.

The Bates homecourt showed no effects of their grueling period off as they jumped into a comfortable lead which they held constant for the entire period when the Shipped builders came near to snatch a thrill ing victory. A basket by Bargen over Boston Good-win started the trick for the star-studded Bobcat side and 20 seconds before Red Barber broke the scoring column with a shot at the foul circle. The rest of the half was marked by the outstanding shooting of Jackie Joyce whose almost every shot added two more points to the Bobcat total. Even before the half wound up the end of the first half, the Bobcat’s new forward, who entered the line-up from Bates High School, brought 10 points, had moved into first place in the state college scoring race.

At one time midway through the period the Bobcats commanded a 20-10 lead. But Bates had moved down into a seven point basket by Joyce, Brown, and Bogan again shot at the Bobcats toward the end of the period into a 30 point lead. Then Joyce, Stutz, and Bogart corralled one after another before Long Bergan, a former St. Lawrence University men's basketball star, turned the tables with a beautiful layup. Joyce scored 15, with Stutz and Bogart contributing 10 apiece before Joyce broke up the run.

The fire brings several former high school stars into tonight's game. First and foremost is Bill Rone, one of the most consistent scorers in New England this winter. Once again the key to holding an ace forward down will fall to George Bogan and Barry. This is no new assignment for these two, for already this year they have faced more than their share of toughs. Bogan and Joyce are already bringing a feeling of resentment toward the West. Would't it be better if we took of the content thought, 'All men are brothers', and made it clear that we feel that way?"
