Library Receives Memorial Pictures

The library has recently received part of an American collection of pictures of North and South America. The collection is being presented to the college, by Dr. Charles H. Tisdler in memory of his son, Dr. Charles H. Tisdler.

The pictures, which represent only good photography, are 12x11. The library has already received about 260 of these pictures, the rest will come in over a period of a year. They will be mounted and cataloged before being placed on display. The exhibits will be in series, such as the Guatemala series, including all pictures on Guatemala.

Pres. Phillips Tells Of New Chapel Plan

At the College Chapel program Monday morning, President Charles F. Phillips outlined the general nature of the new Chapel program and the new lecture series which will be effective next fall. At the same time he announced the appointment of Dr. Hayborn L. Zerby as the Director of the Chapel.

In announcing the appointment, Dr. Phillips said: "Dr. Zerby's main effort will be to make the Chapel an integral part of the college's educational program. In addition to making the Chapel a place of worship and vocation to God, the Chapel will also be used to teach social and civic responsibility, broaden students' horizons, encourage open-mindedness, and teach appreciation for the arts. To do this requires the services of a Director who can devote sufficient time to the Chapel to place it upon a high level.

"For example, we wish to bring more outside speakers to our Chapel platform, men and women from all fields of life. More of our outstanding alumni and trustees should become known to the student body through the Chapel program. Talks on various after-college careers can be given as a method of aiding our students in the selection of their life careers."

In a place of series of one-night lectures, the George Cobby Chase lecture program will be broadened to keep people of outstanding talent coming back.

Program Clarifies Plans For Peace

In accordance with the plans adopted at the University of Maine a week and a half ago the college, under the direction of Mr. Joseph E. LeMaster, has begun its work on an educational program concerning the Dumbarton Oaks proposal.

Feeling that, in order to secure world order and peace, the American people must know the facts of the situation and the proposed solutions, the representatives of the four Maine colleges met at Orono to decide upon steps to be taken. Their conclusion was that each institution should be responsible for disseminating news of Dumbarton Oaks in their respective communities, since the proposals made at that conference are to be the basis for the discussions by the United Nations at San Francisco beginning April 25.

In order to achieve this end, the colleges have offered to render service to organizations who wish to hear lectures, participate in forums, or join discussion groups on the question of the peace treaty. The program will be effective next fall.

Dumbarton Oaks...

Two weeks from today the representatives from the various countries making up the United Nations will meet at San Francisco in order to draw up plans for future world security.

To be able to correctly criticize any decisions made at this conference the American public will have to be thoroughly acquainted with the proposals adopted at Dumbarton Oaks several months ago. For it is upon these principles that the new form of international government will be established.

With this in mind, Bowdoin, Colby, the University of Maine, and Bates have joined in an endeavor to enlighten the people with the proposals adopted at Dumbarton Oaks. Bates students from the Speech Department will preside at the debates. The chairman will include: Jean Holden, Harriet Peirce, Janet Seban, Alice Yatsos, Betty Williams, Elaine Grey, Ruth Swirsky, Marion Thurbur, Helen Sheors, Betty Hutchins, Phyllis Smith, Jean Kelso, Roberta Sweetser, Marjorie Willard, Joy Moirari, Jean Harrington, William Armitage, Charles Stone, Donald Lear, Yale Brass, Leonard Wilmot, Stephen Rich, Joyce Streeter, Richard Keeser, Samuel Kerns, Joseph Koeller, Fred Columbia, Jack Hart, J. Regan, Leonard Lerner, and Stuart Narrod.

The schedule of events for Friday day is as follows:
3:00 Meeting of coaches.
3:30 General assembly. At this time President Phillips will great the debaters. Following this will be the debates.
6:00 Dinner in Band Hall.
7:30 General assembly, Debates.
9:00 Announcement of the winners of the first and second rounds of debate.

Letter To The Editor

Editor, The STUDENT:

Much to my dismay, I noted that your last issue very tactfully, or should I say tactlessly, was incom- plete.

Any mention of the lecture (and I apply the word with abandon) of Mr. Franklin P. Adams was conspicuously absent.

F. P. A., one of the most famous radio personalities in this country certainly deserves mention in the college paper.

A college sheet should present a fairly good coverage of activities within the college community, and stimulate student opinion. It seems that there is something definitely amiss when the STUDENT omits a presentation of the Chase Lecture Series.

When the editor was questioned, the response was gained that there were "more important things to write about than Franklin Adams." From a look at the inside pages this seems rather untrue.

At this point, it is apparent that the sheet either had no opinion, and with the highly opined staff it seems rather unlikely, or else it seems that the opinion they had was deemed by them not fit to print.

Mr. Adams rated at least a slam, or a commendation; but certainly not anonymity or oblivion. Yours in disgust,
John "Doc" Gannon.

March 14 issue of the STUDENT.

The Unit... a presentation of the Chase Lecture Series.

President Phillips, will instruct their representatives in Congress to vote. If America is not ready to stand in back of the world order we have long ago been hung from the sheet either had no opinion, or a commendation; but certainly not anonymity or oblivion.

From a look at the inside pages the Unit now greatly reduced in size. Therefore, it is with the utmost sincerity that we thank those of you who aided with decorations, ticket sales, planning, and in keeping our financial head above water. We hope that any civilian dance committee will not hesitate to call upon us for any assistance that we may be able to provide, there is usually an almost unlimited supply of manpower, thanks to a well-populated extra duty list, and a large crew expedites matters a great deal during the decorating operations.

The mass blind-dating was nip- ped in the bud by an unsaid phone call; after so much bally hooing, we are sorry that the project came to such an ignominious end. However, considering the inherent dangers in engineering a large number of such matches, it may have been just as well for our bodily safety. Had success granted we favor, we would no doubt have long ago been hang from Stanton Elm. But, to those of you who were unable to go because of the unfortunate denouement, we extend our sympathy — we tried, anyhow.

The Fleet Band has an opportunity to play again on campus. Ticket sales were well above our expectations; until the last minute, an attendance of eighty couples seemed to be an optimistic estimate, however, approximately 125 couples dotted the floor at the function. So much for the Spring Formal; now it's your turn and we are looking forward very much to the Ivey Hop (or is its rumored cancellation true?). It will be very pleasant to attend a formal which requires only the slight effort of buying a ticket.

JUDGES SELECT TWO FRESH BEST SPEAKERS

The debaters for the Freshman prize Debates met in Chase Hall last Thursday night. Jean Harrington of the women's team and William Sawyer of the men's team were the winners of the prizes as best speakers. Pauline Chandler was chairman of the Women's teams while Mary Goldier also acted as chairman for the men's teams.

The affirmative team consisting of Jean Harrington and Fern Overton won over Ruth Hoffman and Henrietta Fein who supported the negative. William Sawyer and Lawrence Carey were on the affirmative, with Ronald Reiker and Robert Smith on the negative. The affirmative, in this case, lost to the negative although it had the best speaker.

THE INDIAN FOUNDATION OFFERS SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships for training in physical therapy under the $1,267,600 program of The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis are available immediately for classes commencing in June and July. Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation, announced recently.

As a result of the increasing use of physical therapy in the treatment of infantile paralysis and many diseases, and because of the acute shortage of trained personnel, The National Foundation is offering these scholarships for nine to twelve months' courses in approved schools of physical therapy. The scholarships will cover tuition and maintenance in accordance with the student's needs.

Candidates for National Foundation scholarships must have two years of college, including biology and other basic sciences, or be graduates of accredited schools of nursing or physical education. Applications should be made to The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 120 Broadway, New York 5, N. Y.

Turning to the work of the Vincentian nurses who serve our students, we would like to tell you about two recent appointments made by the administration. The first is the appointment of Sister Therese C. Quinlan, a Vincentian from St. Anthony's School of Nursing, as the new Nurse Coordinator. Sister Therese will be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the nursing program and will work closely with the faculty and students. The second appointment is that of Sister Mary Rose, who has joined our faculty as an instructor in the nursing program. Sister Mary Rose brings with her a wealth of experience in the field and will be an asset to our nursing program.

WAA PROPOSES NEW BETTY BALES PLAN

W.A.A. will hold its annual Betty Bales parade in W.L.B. on May 4. At this time a new system for selecting Betty Bales will be inaugurated. This year students will choose contestants by classes rather than by houses. At House meeting on April 14 each student will nominate seven members from her class, and the seven girls receiving the highest number of votes in each class will participate in the program. The freshman class is excluded.

This means that 21 contestants will march in the parade. The judges from the Physical Education Department will see three girls. The audience will then vote, and their total vote will equal the vote of one judge in eliminating one of the remaining three.

The qualities looked for in selecting her are posture, grouping, sportmanship, and one year of training. The winner will hold the Betty Bales title for one year and will receive a silver bracelet from W. A. A.

NEW CHAPEL PROGRAM

The purpose of the program is to encourage and ability on the campus for two-day visits, Dr. Phillips said.

"We tried out this new technique in the recent visit of Senator Montenegro to the campus. Prior to his formal evening lecture, he talked in several of our classes, had informal discussions with various groups and ate with students in our dining hall. Consequently the students came to know him and he came to understand them and their interests. The net result was that he made a much greater contribution to student life at Bates than would have resulted from a one-night lecture. You people here ought to follow a similar arrangement for all those we invite as George Colby Chase lecturers."

Hot Sports

"Summertime ..."

Gasing for breath and (alternately) shivering in the chill blasts of a Maine spring, the teams for the spring sport season are both now settled down to the intensive period of their training period, as both track and baseball leave the cage to air practice on the outdoor Garcelon Oval. Gasing with thirst, our prime reporter fell over the doorstep to the phone booth which we use for an office (phone #4121) with his biweekly contribution to the annals of literature, finally staggering out clutching the Budweiser which has become his salary. Among other things he comments ...

... and the baseball team under Monte Moore (Director of Physical Education for Men E. Monte Moore) has been shaping into good form. J (ain't it Pauline?) Mitchell, 2b, Chief Luck, 1b, Norm Goveita, c, Carl Bradley, 3b, and some unknown character at shortstop seem to be the top men in the infield. The pitchers, John Chase, Joe Hottman, also have been showing plenty of stuff. The outfield has not been set up as yet... (but) ... in batting practice McLeary (Donald), Joe Goodman, Beaney and others have been plenty hot at the plate. There are at least 14 games scheduled, the first being played April 19 at Bowdoin. I believe the baseball season will afford as many victories as the basketball team ...

Track is also (he notes) taking a spot in the athletic field. Coach Thompson has a small squad (25) but he has good material to work with. One holdover from last season (and the semester before, for that matter) "West Parker" (that's a joke, ha ha) still has his same old speed. A. R. Miller (dashes), and Red MacLean (broadjump) also have been kicking up the dust around the track. (Artie Bauman, our pivotal distance man, is back and looking good, as does his running mate Mellen; 'taid to tell who'll turn up good this early in the season).

Following this there is some misinformation about the first meet which I shan't record. Truth is, the first meet will be an all-Maine affair at Bowdoin on the fifth of May, where there will be seven or so events. It'll be interesting to see if the team can stand the vacation so soon before their initial start. To return to our reporter's roaming, he winds up:

"That seems to end up the sports picture as the weather becomes warmer and the grass greener. If I this article isn't up to par with others I have been finding out what happens when the "director's" approach comes out of the pages of Statinslevski and confronts them on the hard, cold floor of the Little Theatre. It was probably all slightly bewildering at first to the new directors, assistant directors, stage managers, and assistant stage managers, but we suspect that they recovered because the fruit of their labors was a Dramatic Work shop presentation of three one-act plays which held an audience of about 120 on the night of April 4.

The first was directed by Alice Shaw '45. In the story an actress, played by Mary Meyer '47, is possessed with a desire to own the front door knob of a very sweet old lady, played by Lynne Clarke '48. The old lady is an invalid and welcomes the diversion of a little game of pretending despite the incidental disgust of her housekeeper, played by Ruth Garland '46. The actress got it, but she didn't find out about the other one on the side door.

The second director was Ruth Small '46. She had the novel experience of directing two characters with double personalites so simultaneously. The second was directed by Alice Shaw '45. The questions of collective security are decided. Dumbarton Oaks (Continued from page one) the decisions made at San Francisco are on reserve in the library. Others in 14k Gold $2.00 and $3.95 Many of them with workable parts.
