Bates-On-The-Air

This afternoon's program will be an interview of the girl who spent the past summer unlisted in the United States. The girl, an outstanding student, will be the guest on "Bates-On-The-Air".

Dr. T. Z. Koo is now in the United States after spending nearly three years in Japanese occupied China. He was formerly Head of the Department of Christian Education in Shanghai's Community Church and is now associated with a medical hospital. Upon returning, Dr. Koo has been traveling and speaking in North and South America as a secretary of the World Student Christian Federation.

The vespers service at which Dr. Koo will speak will be held on Sunday evening in the chapel at 7:15 p.m. Students, faculty, and members of the community are invited to attend the service, which will be under the leadership of Walter J. Nassar, Sr., with Prof. Joshua T. Graber and the Bates College choir furnishing the music. A special vespers service, rehearsals will be served at a gathering at the Woolman Union. All students are invited to meet Dr. Koo personally and talk informally with him.

Dr. Koo was a student at St. John's University inenchagoli and worked as a secretary at the United States Consulate in China. He served as a member of the Nationalist Chinese government's repre- sentative of the League of Nations and as a delegate to meetings of the United Nations. Dr. Koo was also an answer to the question designated as the san Francisco Conference.

Freshman Week Services End At Smith

On Tuesday, October 30, three students from Bates, representing three of the major organizations on campus, attended a World Student Relief Conference at Smith College in Massachusetts. Joe Meuser, C. H. Nelson, and Tony Fedor attended the conference along with representatives from many other New England colleges.

The conference was devoted almost entirely to discussions and lectures on the need for student relief in foreign countries and their part in the World Student Fund's efforts to relieve suffering and poverty. Among the speakers were such well-known figures as the late Yehudi Menuhin, who performed at Bates earlier this season.

"Ducky" Had Cause To Smile

In reference to the previous page, the text reads: "Ducky" had cause to smile.
I come to Bates as a sub-freshman on a Saturday night, and as I had learned to live happily in New Jersey, I had never been to the chapel or the theatre, or to the operating rooms of the medical school. In fact, I did not know where the student union was located. But the Students' Council, I was told, was holding a dance at the Student Union on Saturday night. I was not interested in dancing, but I was interested in the atmosphere it created for the students. I decided to attend the dance to see what it was like.

I soon discovered that the dance was a popular event among the students. The music was good, and the atmosphere was lively. I noticed that many of the students were talking about the dance and how much they enjoyed it. I also noticed that many of the students were dancing together in groups, and that they were having a good time.

I was surprised to find that the dance was not just for students, but also for faculty and staff. I noticed that there were many faculty members dancing with the students, and that they were having a good time as well. I also noticed that there were many people who were not dancing, but were just standing and talking. I was surprised to find that the dance was not just for students, but also for faculty and staff. Cheering Squad Gets Good Crowd Response

The new Bates cheering squad ought to have a good crowd for the northeastern rally last Friday. Because of the bad weather, the crowd was said to be small.

A new group of cheerleaders was dressed up and ready to go. Mr. Trafton Mendall commented that the band was not ready for Saturday's game and that the cheerleaders had arrived too late. The group includes the following:

- Camille E. Carlson, Roxbury, N. H.
- Barbara C. Carter, Maidson, Mass.
- Barbara E. Chandler, Providence, R. I.
- Patricia E. Chapman, West Haven, Conn.
- Mitzi H. Chilcote, Nashua, N. H.
- Donald A. Clark, Milford, Conn.
- Colleen A. Colos, Auburn, Mass.
- Marguerite A. M. Cope, Netcong, N. J.
- Edward D. Dale, East Grinstead, N. Y.
- L. D. Danielson, Jr., Lewiston, Me.
- Donald D. Day, Auburn, Me.
- Laura D. DeMarco, Richmond.
- Ruth D. Dillman, Albany.
- Edward Stanley Dion, Lewiston.
- Elwood E. Ebbert, Lone Pine, Cal.
- Bessie E. Frazee, Westfield, Mass.
- Platia M., Rachel E. Rankin, Auburn, Me.
- Albert W. Rankin, Litchfield, Me.
- Charles G. Rankin, Boston.
- Alice S. Rankin, Chicago.
- Althea L. Rankin, New York, N. Y.

Bobcats Smother Northeastern Huskies On Wet Field, 20-0

Sputtered on by Mayor John Dryer's stirring pre-game pep talk the huskies that Northeastern brought to Lewiston didn't make the going easy for the Bobcats. They smothered a husky but stopped Northeastern in a record offensive attack. The huskies ended the game with a commanding 14-0 lead.

This, our fourth straight victory, has surprised everyone by holding power up to the north. At one point it appeared that our ground attack was some-what stalled but our passing showed what to do and South used such situations to advantage. Today off-Campus opens its sea-son against Smith North at 3:00 on Darwin.

Maine Wins Cross Country

Last Saturday morning the 11, of Maine swept to a complete 156 win over our generally not-in-shape Maine squad. The Bear squad here as all seven Maine runners crossed the tape to-gether a half lap before Freddy Maine Wins Cross Country

Bates Is Slight Favorite In Tilt With U. Of Maine

The undefeated Bobcats, fresh from a 156 win over Northeastern, will roll into the State Series Saturday a slight favorite. The target will be Maine, at Orono, and the theme song is "Come on, now, and cheer your ball club on".

Maine, despite their straight set-backs, has shown a decided ability to score. They lost by one point in two of their games, and above all they will be pointing for Bates. The Bear squad will have to score, they will have to work hard, and they will have to win the State Series.

Bates Track Team vs. Smith

The Bobcats settled down to business Monday night Smith Hall South opened its season equally success-fully, trouncing Smith Middle, 24-0, behind a strong pass attack. At this time Northeastern seemed a bit uncer-tain what to do and South used this to advantage. Today off-Campus opens its sea-son against Smith North at 3:00 on Darwin.
