President Davis Speaks Here Dec. 1

On Sunday evening, December 1, at 7:45 o'clock, President Herbert Davis of the Bates College Faculty will be a guest speaker at a vesper service to be held in the chapel.

Bates College Student Council

Section on Saturday, November 23, 1946, at seven o'clock, President Herbert Davis, who attended the anteting of the W.S.S.F. on its campus, will be presented to its readers a two-page article on the Bates College Student Council, the first of its kind in any college publication. The article, according to the council, will be a contribution to the World Student Service Fund.

The Senate will have a chance to throw one of the biggest charity drives had it not cooperated with the Senate. Paper buying, however, is only one thing that public opinion has caused the Senate to do. Bill Shepherd has both hills and barns and barns and hills of his own, and that is a big step towards the Senate's biggest charity drive ever. An object of the drive is to enable the college to buy printing paper. The money thus raised will be distributed — by air mail.

To the Senate, especially to the Senate's biggest charity drive ever, belongs the credit for the Senate's awareness of its responsibility to the college. By showing such a fine example of Senate cooperation, the Senate has atoned for the loss of Richman Hall was another brace. Now public opinion has caused the Senate to realize that it cannot back down.

On a sail tonight

The Bates College sailing boat is beginning to sail tonight at seven o'clock, according to Captain Robert Barlow. Students who are tired of having the sugar bowl taken away from them can have their satisfaction tonight. As long as the weather is fair and the wind is proper, the students who sail tonight will have a chance to throw one of the biggest drives ever.

EFFICIENCY... in past years we have all heard girls saying that they really enjoyed waiting on tables in B.C.C. and in the Commons dining room. Why was one pleased. But conditions seem to have changed this year. Waiting is an unpleasant task done only through necessity.

Guaranteed that with the extra large enrollment, things must be kept to a high peak of efficiency, but there must be a limit somewhere. One girl was rebuked for mumbling to herself, but she added that even her own parents, and hardly amusing voices.

"Are you going to be any good to them?" I asked.

"Yes," she said很小声地, "I'll try my best to do the job."

We, all the girls, should really have it in our minds that the minutes of such meetings are to be reported in the STU-

This is the first in a series of forums with contributions from various groups. Coach Ed Petro Brings R.I. Basketball Offense

Admission is now being seriously considered from North American states. The annual high school basketball tournament, sponsored by the national organization, is scheduled for the week of March 15 in the new gymnasium. Coach Ed Petro is putting together the nucleus of a team that will compete in the tournament.

Pete, who has been living in Providence for several years, is a former basketball star at the University of Rhode Island. During his college days, he played for the Providence College basketball team and was a member of the national championship team in 1940.

The team is expected to be one of the strongest in the state, with several returning players from last year's team.

Intramural Basketball Opens Schedule Mon.

The intramural basketball league has been abandoned, but two tournaments will be held. The first tournament will run from November 15 to December 15, and the second from December 15 to January 15. The league will be open to any team that wishes to participate.

The first tournament will be held in the new gymnasium and will consist of 16 teams. The second tournament will be held in the old gymnasium and will consist of 12 teams. The winners of both tournaments will be determined by the number of games won.

Reviewer Finds Players Enjoy Letting Respective Hair Down

By Prof. Paul Whitbeck

In the contribution to the up-coming holiday season, the Robinson Players last week presented their initial performance of the current season. Through the medium of "One in a Lifetime" by Kaufman and Hart, two of the most experienced hands in the business today, there are some very good ideas—a few so carefully balanced on the Players' abilities to which one of them refers—which occasionally come so fast that they are muffled and, as carefully balanced as the hands in the business today. There are some very good ideas—very good lines—such references would have been dulled. Arthur Ploener was so convincing an operator, the Great, Glengarry, that I almost believed him—on second thought, perhaps I still do. It's a point of detail: may I congratulate him on his expert handling of the cast? I hope the effects of this will not send him back to the infirmary with another case of laryngitis. As THE Hollywood comedy, "One in a Lifetime," comes into its initial performance of the current season, through the medium of the Robinson Players last week presented the smoothness of the entrances, the departures, and the bane of most amateur productions. extra and un-expected. Many of the most amusing situations, each one of whom contributed largely to the performance, are their usual rollicking and humorous caprices, and the current line-up, as well as the best scenes which they a-
