Bates Debaters Return Home From Engagements With British Colleges

By Robert L. Inness '50

"Yes, it's great to be back on our campus again," said Norman R. Vonasek, a seasoned debater from the Bates Debate Society, "and it's even better to be back in New England." Vonasek spoke on behalf of the Bates debaters, who returned victorious from their recent trips to England and Scotland.

While in London, the debaters had the opportunity to attend a variety of events, including debates at Oxford and St. Andrews. These debates were an opportunity to compete against Oxford and St. Andrews' finest debaters and to gauge the level of debate in those institutions.

The debaters also had the opportunity to visit a number of landmarks, such as the British Museum, the National Gallery, and the Tower of London. These visits provided an opportunity to learn about the history and culture of the United Kingdom.

The debaters also took part in cultural events, such as attending a performance at the Manchester Arena and visiting the Barber Institute Art Gallery. These events provided an opportunity to experience the arts and culture of the region.

The debaters were hosted by their counterparts at Oxford and St. Andrews, who provided them with an opportunity to learn about the culture and traditions of the United Kingdom. The debaters were also able to interact with students from these institutions, which provided an opportunity to learn about the experiences of their counterparts.

Overall, the debaters had a productive and enjoyable experience, which provided them with an opportunity to learn about the culture and traditions of the United Kingdom, as well as to compete against some of the finest debaters in the world.

To be sure, it's interesting to know what is going on, but there's much more to student life than just reading the campus newspaper. All of us have a chance of helping to improve it by being "Director, News Bureau." It's a chance to get the facts of the situation all along the line as they all go. Today's Journal and Wednesday's are very interesting to read. By the way, I hope you all will try it. From these two papers we get some facts and keep on it forever. My, it's been a lot of fun.

Friedrich "Fred" Barry was also a performer of the highest possible degree, but was in top shape by the time he had walked up and down the aisles of music hall. As soon as he was a soloist, he was a virtuoso. He had the style and grace of a master. Fred is a member of the American Federation of Musicians and has performed in many concert halls. He was the recipient of a Grammy Award for his recording of "The Great American Songbook." He is considered one of the great performers of our time.

Who Will Win The Glass Bowl Tilt?

By Dave Titton

"Let's see if we can get a rise for the Bobcat fans over the University of Toledo issue by saying that the way it looks from this side, the Boston College will be the loser of the Glass Bowl game by about ten touchdowns and that's the way we pick them."

SWENSEY, many touchdowns have been scored against Toledo. The Cats have been scored on only once, the Rocket 18 times. Bates is undesirable.

3. Psychological edge of being winners. The Bobcats have played more games than the Cats and have played mostly against Western colleges support their team.

4. Reserve. The Rockets have had a very good reserve system.

5. Time of game. The Rockets can easily turn the scales hard to judge, the second must be informal, may aid the Cats.

6. Location. The Bobcats will have few rowdies at Toledo and will be at a psychological disadvantage.

On the other hand the fighting Bobcat tradition if it reaches its peak might turn the scales easily.

I think the three most important factors of all classes are morale, cheating and reserves. The first is hard to judge, the second must be too since I don't know Orwig. Toledo definitely has the edge in reserves, especially in the backfield. Which will win? For yourself. I wouldn't bet against the Cats.
