Bates-on-The-Air

On Tuesday, February 7th, Bates-on-the-Air presented a recorded debate between Bates and the University of Maine. The question for debate was, "Resolved, that Congress enact the Truman Socialized Medicine Plan." The speakers for Bates were Middlesex Richard and David Brigham. The technicians were Eleanor Wood and announcer, Edward Glenn.

Wednesday, Bates-on-the-Air is devoted to Winter Carnival. The audience was taken on a tour of the various events of the week by Director Mar- sden Wooton. Participants included the bartendership quartette, Jean Hunter, Janet Jaffe, William S. Haddad, Eleanor Wood, Joanne Williams, Jane Styx, Mary Moyer, and Carol Wooton. After the broadcast was Eleanor Wood.

Feb. 13 Is Date Of Frosh Prize Speaking

Freshman tryouts for the Frosh- man Prize Contest will be held on Thursday, February 13. Contact the bulletin board for time and place. The contestants may speak on any subject they wish. The winners in the Freshman Prize Contest will go to Dartmouth for an invitation tourney at a later date.

Jean Harrington and Ray Clough have been chosen to debut at Ambrose College on the subject of "Jane's Share in Management." Bates will uphold the negative side of the question. This debate will be held at Mt. Herman on February 18.

It has been announced that there will be a meeting of the Debate Council Tuesday, February 11, at 8:00 a.m.

The 1947 Olympics

The Olympic games of 1947 will not be held this year, according to Mr. Philip Ide of the American Olympic Association. Mr. Ide was quoted as saying that the Olympic games will not be held next year either due to financial arrangements. He said, "From all indications the games will be held in 1949." Spectators in inside circles interpret his statement to mean that the U.S. will send teams to international sporting competition in the two years and perhaps two good years away.

Thompsonites Swamp Colby Squad In Bates' First Post-War Track Victory

Saturday, Jan 25, the Bobcat team broke into the win column for the first time in several years with a 13 point victory over Colby. College, with McDonough, University of Maine, Colby, Bowdoin, University of Maine, and Bates as host.

Several prominent skiers will be well worth watching. From way-down-Maine there will be outstanding men in both cross-country and the jumping events. From Bowdoin will come Johnny Potter, who is perhaps the best jumper bornherself. Also rep-resented from the northern cross-country and skis will be a number of men, led by those from Mount. Hallowell. Hastings shows, however, understands the serious- utive task of guiding the Bobwold team, is an amateur, and thereby being eligible to compete. At Skowhegan and Friday morning Houghton, Vernon, Woodcock, Rice and Babbett will represent Bates in the downhill event and the same will be the case in the tour de Ski, in which the 39,000 will be at Sabattus.

Moving over to Gordeon Sat-urday morning and to Mt. David in the afternoon, the hickory-runners will be in view for all those who 'just' watch.' Running for Bates in the morning will be Ver-sus, Houghton, Cushing, Wood- cock, and Rice. In the afternoon Woodcock, Houghton, and Vernon will be bearing names common to several of our most eminent jum- pers, Fred Jones, will unfortunately not be participating this week. The average for any Maine Conference team is 6k of the official course in this event. THOMAS M. HUDSON, Jr.

Skiing Combine Operations

Over at Bang Field this afternoon there are "big dogs" for all girls who can stand it. Since this group which will assemble contains parents, sisters, who are going on their own, and those who are some- where in between. In the finishing vis., the girls will be separated into two sections: Advanced inter-me- diate and beginners. Beginners and intermediates will be divided into teams for their events.

The program will run as follows:

Ski Ball for Intermediates, 2 to 3:45.
1. Abstract Rates for Beginners. 2:45 to 3:15.
2. Combined Rates for Intermediates. 3:15 to 4:30.
3. Skim for Advanced. 4:30 to 5:45.

Not only will this be far from over but there'll be more to come. In a word, it should prove interesting to all spectators.

For Coach Fred Bonham and Mar- velous Witches, all will be in charge of this part of Central's fine packed weekend event.

Bates Winter Carnival

The trip to Taffy and New Hamph- erson brought a holdout to the bobcat for 13 points and the Colby game was over Bowdoin, Colby, and Maine at Medford pro- duct of being one of those nights that every team has come in a while when absolutely nothing worked right. Up against a Taffy the Bobcat was eager to cover the defeat so the football season, the Bobcats will not match the Boston University with the Golden ones. But in the 100 yard hurdles, for 11 points.
