Peppermint Chiefs Are Vet Sportsters

By Irene Tilling

If you remember back to last year, you'll recall that our beloved boys were busy making up a vet's uniform and spade the chieftains' costumes for the winter Carnival, which will be held tomorrow, in the theme: "Peppermint Foot Fairyland." A reception will be tendered the contestants this evening in the President's room.

Dick, a senior, is the in a veteran in the Carnival, and is as sure to put on a good show as the girls on the first. Masquerade will have to pull out all the stops to top what we've seen before.

One of the new additions to this year's Carnival is the Peppermint Band. This band will consist of all our seniors who are interested in music, and who are willing to devote some time to practice. The band will be led by a conductor, who will be responsible for keeping the music flowing smoothly.

The Peppermint Band will be performing a variety of songs, ranging from popular tunes to more traditional pieces. The band will be dressed in black suits, with red ties and white shirts, to add a touch of color to the Carnival atmosphere.

The Carnival will be held in the gymnasium tomorrow evening, and will feature a variety of games and activities, as well as live music and entertainment. The Peppermint Band will be one of the main attractions of the evening, and is sure to delight the audience with their musical talent and lively performances.

Come and enjoy the Carnival, and be sure to check out the Peppermint Band's performance! It promises to be a fantastic night of fun and entertainment.

The Bobkittens assumed a 22-13 lead over the home team to run up a 5-0 margin at the conclusion of the first period. However, in the last eight minutes of the half, the Bates men had put together a powerful rally and increased their lead to the winning score of 80-57.

In the second half Tufts really tried to take the game away from us. However, the Cats were able to maintain their lead and by the ten minute reading 33-27.

The Bobcats set some sort of a record in the contest as their 13-13 record for the home team to the 27-14 lead. However, this was only by the 7-3 record for the home team to the 10-7 lead.

The Bates skating team met Bridgton Saturday evening and the Maine State League Game on the Rink.

The Bobcats in both aggregations responded. We were unable to handle the Colby Mules in the game, this was far from a rough and tumble affair. Taking advantage of the Colby lead at 17-16 at the end of the first period, they had led by a 3-5 point lead.

All during this half the lead was on the basket for some Bill Simpson, for no matter which way he shot the ball refused to drop. However, in the last eight minutes of the half, the Bobcats were able to increase their lead and by the ten minute reading 33-27.

That's all there is to the story. The Bates men had put together a powerful rally and increased their lead to the winning score of 80-57.
