Composers Show Talents Tonight

During the course of the evening, new and old concert-hall songs were heard in the group of compositions prepared by students in the College of Music. Three members of the Class of 1948,逃脱ed Jean Dempsy, Lew Hollander, and Bob Harrington, participated in the concert effort, and a student piano trio, of which the members are all students in the class, played music composed by students in the College of Music.

Queens-Court Assists in Ruling Court

One of the main events of the Carnival, known as the class of the chantey, was the crown ceremony. Mary Lee, 1948, was crowned the queen of the Carnival, and the activities of the carnival were divided among the five princesses, chosen by the class of the chantey.

Skate Events Mark Saturday Activity

Norm enjoys Chance At Other Side Of Desk

By Abbe Wilson

As you leave your final campus examinations behind you this last afternoon, do you wonder what the other half of the desk is for? Norm has a full but well balanced course of other work and his own teaching duties. A multitude of details involved in arranging for three separate debate clinics, as well as extensive organizational work for the three secondary debate school debates, has taken a good deal of time and attention. Norm also teaches French and various French electives on campus.

Norm's career at Bates began in February, 1948, when he was accepted for the Army Air Force Aviation cadet program. After being given his commission as a Second Lieutenant and having extensive examinations overseas on a 224-B Legislature flight.

Following his discharge in June, Norm started work as a Y.M.C.A. physical director from 8:30-11:00 a.m. each day for a month. He returned to Bates in February, 1949, and was graduated in June, 1949.

Norm has contributed outstanding work in the field of debate and has been consistently for gowns with some cov-

FIRST HALF INTRAMURAL PLAY ENDS—In Tie—Dream Team Selected

By Bob Wade and

Mr. Decker

As the last half of the intramural season draws to a close, the now fateful January twenty-first salary day looms upon us. It has been known throughout the past quarter that the Daily Bater was bound to lose a team in the Brown Stag series. The last stand was made by the Bobcats, and their tie brought them back to a level with the Dream Team, which is no mean feat in view of their starting three-quarter schedule of Brown, Ancient, and State. The Bobcats fought hard, but the Dream Team is the team of the season.

In the second year of intramural play, this week saw the first real fight for the championship. Throughout the season, the Bobcats and Dream Team have been the two top teams, but the Bobcats have never been able to get the advantage over the Dream Team. This week, however, the Bobcats were able to take the tie points and bring the championship down to the wire.

On the other hand, the Dream Team has been the team of the season, and they have been able to hold their own in the championship race. Their tie against the Bobcats has brought them back to the top of the ladder, and they will have to fight hard to hold on to their lead.

At this writing, nine men were selected to the squad, and the Dream Team is leading the pack. The Bobcats have the advantage of their home court, but the Dream Team is not to be underestimated. The Bobcats and Dream Team are the two top teams in the championship race, and it will be interesting to see which team will come out on top.
